BPW Delegates Consider Issues

Mrs. Julia Hassell, Mrs. Marjnette Lassiter, and Mrs. Hettie Wallace attended a National Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C., March 1-3, sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

More than 600 women from throughout the country heard members of Congress and professional lobbyists discuss the arts of successful lobbying on national issues.

Representatives Lindy Boggs (D-LA), Barbara Mikulski (D-MD), and Newton Steers, Jr. (R-MD) explained the national legislative process and Carol Bellamy, keynote speaker and newly elected president of the New York City Council, talked about the role of women in politics and her own career in big-city politics. The conference highlighted such topics as "How to get what you want by lobbying," and "Building a grass roots organization." Lobbying techniques were put into practice Thursday morning when participants visited their members of Congress to push their points of view on current legislation.

Conferees also discussed specific legislation. The Domestic Violence Prevention and Treatment Act, the Displaced Homemakers Act, and the Social Security Equity Act were scrutinized for their impact on women.

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. supports legislation to benefit women in such areas as credit and insurance, aging, education, employment, child care and family services, health, welfare, and taxes.

The Marriage Vows

Chappell's Hill church was beautifully set. For a special occasion, I'll never forget it. It was the wedding day for Dianne, Jackie Bass was the fortunate man.

Yes I've known Dianne all her life, I am positive she made a wonderful wife. I can recall when Dianne was a little girl, Her hair was a cluster of golden curls.

She grew up, went out in life, Now she's no longer a girl but a wife. The wedding was carried out beautiful, you see, The bridesmaids dresses were red as could be.

I watched Dianne grow up from week to week, She was a sincere girl, I really think. When the church doors were open Dianne was there, Always smiling, did not seem to have a care.

Dianne was the baby of the family, though, She was a wonderful mother you know. Yes she was raised up with a tender hand, We realize now she has the protection of a man.

Best regards go out to Jackie and Dianne, We know that marriage is God's own plan. Now they will establish their own home, They are joined together never more to roam. Yes she will be greatly missed by us all, She'll not be at church to answer her call. Dianne is truly married, this we understand, God created woman as a companion for man.

Providence Baptist Notes

Prayer is a definite act of the mind, a gesture by which the human spirit seeks out the spirit of the universe. In prayer you call upon the Infinite to help. Prayer is forever a thing "ask for" and it is a thing "done" a reaching forth to link one-self to the source of celestial power.

We invite you to worship with us this Sunday as we reach forth to link ourselves with that power in a friendly Church where everybody is somebody and Christ is Lord of all and the freedom of worship is yours.
