

Dental Unit Sponsors Contests

As a part of National Children's Dental Health Week in February, poster and essay contests were sponsored by The Mobile Dental Unit serving Chowan County students in grades K through 6. Children in grades 2, 3, and 4 were invited to make posters on dental health; students in grades 5 and 6 wrote essays on "Snacks for Dental Health." First place prizes were awarded in each participating classroom.

The following students at D.F. Walker School were 1st prize winners in their respective classroom: Stephanie Holley, Mrs. Everett; Dwayne Lawrence, Miss Stevens; William Flynn, Miss Holmes; Karen Sawyer, M. Lowe; Lori Lewis, M.S. Twine; Michael Harris, Miss Taylor; Liza Vaughan, Mrs. Roberson; Carol Baker, Mrs. Bond; Reba White, Mrs. Sawyer. Dr. Marshall, Mobile Unit Dentist, and Mrs. McCrodden, assistant, were judges of the students' posters.

The Mobile Dental Unit is a part of a county and state program designed to treat children in grades K through 6. Although only some children are selected for treatment (those who would not be able to see a private dentist for necessary care) all children benefit from the educational and preventive part of the program. All children are screened, taught to brush and floss properly and provided toothbrushes twice a year. Students from junior and senior high schools are treated only as emergency patients. In some instances, Medicaid and Health Department referrals are accepted in the Mobile Dental Unit.

While in Chowan County 84 students from D.F. Walker, three from Chowan High School, 15 from Ernest A. Swain, 21 from John A. Holmes and three students from the Alternative School received treatment.

Karen Sawyer, Stephanie Holley, Michael Harris, William Flynn, Dwayne Lawrence, Reba White, Carol Baker, Liza Vaughan, and Lori Lewis were the 2nd and 3rd grade student winners in the contest sponsored by the Mobile Dental Unit during National Children's Dental Health Week.

Poster Artists Awarded

Three Chowan County students won top honors in the 25th. Annual Albemarle District Conservation Poster Contest held on March 2 in Hertford.

Stephen Bass was first place winner in the fourth grade and Smith Roberson placed second in the fourth grade. Both are students at Chowan Academy. Jennifer Ledford, a student at Swain Elementary, won first place in the sixth grade.

Other winners in the contest were: Michelle Pendleton of Pasquotank County, first place - fifth grade; Barbara Thomas of Pasquotank, second place - fifth grade; and Gina Stevenson of Perquimans County, second place - sixth grade. The winners received engraved plaques for their achievements.

The Albemarle Conservation Poster Contest, sponsored by the Albemarle Electric Membership Corporation, is a climax of the poster contests held in each county. A luncheon honoring the students was held at the REA Building in Hertford with G. Samuel Cox, Area Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service, the main speaker for the occasion. Others attending the event were parents, school officials, conservation district supervisors, and members of the Albemarle Electric Membership Corporation.

Judges for the contest were M.E. Knight, Conservation District Supervisor from Gates County; Frank Veach, retired Soil Conservation Service employee from Elizabeth City; and S.L. Lowery, retired Extension Chairman from Pasquotank County.

First place winners in the District Contest will compete in the Area Five Conservation Poster Contest to be held in March.

FEATURED ARTIST—Bea Quigley Tucker of Mobile, Ala. is the featured artist of a showing for March at Court Square Antiques in Edenton. A contributor to many private collections in the South, Mrs. Tucker's favorite medium is watercolor with other emphasis on oils and acrylics.

Southern Artist Exhibits Work

A March showing of art by watercolorist Bea Quigley Tucker of Mobile, Ala. is being featured at Court Square Antiques, 209 East King Street, reported Mrs. Nancy J. Campbell, owner.

Mrs. Tucker, she stated, is one of the better known artists in the Gulf area. Her paintings are now receiving widespread recognition in other parts of the country.

Mrs. Tucker received her academic art training at Abbot Art School, Washington, D.C., and the Chouinard Art Institute, Los Angeles. She has studied with Xavier Gonzales of New York, Conrad Albrizio, Frederick Taubes, Charles Allgood, Fred Mitchell, Ida Kohlmeier, Alvin Sella and with Paul Feldhaus, Mobile Artist and Printer.

Her favorite medium is watercolor, but her talent is also expressed in her skillful use of oils and acrylics. Her work is considered dreamy and semi-abstract. Recently Mrs. Tucker has been doing lithography and other graphics.

She has sold extensively to private collections throughout the South. She is a member of the Mobile Art Association, Water Color and Graphic Art Society of Mobile. The Mississippi Art Colony, the Alabama Art League, the Louisiana Water Color Society and the Alabama Water Color Society.

Mrs. Tucker has had many one man shows and has been accepted in competition in many regional and national art exhibitions throughout the United States.

COA Publicizing Programs

College of The Albemarle will return to Southgate Mall in Elizabeth City this week from Thursday through Saturday to publicly display the varied educational opportunities offered by the community college.

Don Boyette, chairman of the three-day event, said the displays will provide area residents a chance to better comprehend the broad range of programs available at the college. He added that it will also give interested persons an on-the-spot chance to discuss any programs offered by COA or programs they would like to see added to the already large curricula.

The comprehensive exhibit which will be set up in the mall's main concourse, will also visually display information about student organizations and activities on the two campuses. Faculty, staff and students will be present each day to answer questions concerning college transfer, technical, vocational and continuing education programs which make up COA's curricula.

Cosmetology students will feature live demonstrations of hair styling each afternoon during the three days.

A series of 28 different adult interest courses being taught at the college will also be featured by the Continuing Education Department.

The display will be open to the public from 1 P.M. until 9 P.M. on Thursday; 9 A.M. until 9 P.M. Friday; and on Saturday from 9 A.M. until 6 P.M.

Informational material describing each curriculum program will be available for distribution. The chairman said that counselors will answer questions relative to any aspect of attending COA, including tuition, financial aid and self-help programs for eligible students. He urged everyone to visit the exhibit to learn more about their community college.

Vinnie Ream Hoxie was the first woman to sculpt a statue for the Capitol building in Washington. Paid $10,000 after Lincoln's assassination, she said the only complaint she ever got was that Lincoln looked better in her statue than in real life.
