

REHEARSE EASTER ORATORIO — Members of College of The Albemarle's Chorale, music students and area vocalists are busily engaged in rehearsals this week for the college's Lyceum presentation of J.S. Bach's "The Passion of Our Lord According to St. John", which will be sung on Palm Sunday (March 19) at 3:30 P.M. at the First United Methodist Church in Elizabeth City. The well-known oratorio will be conducted by Dr. Clifford E. Bair, professor emeritus, with accompaniment provided by instrumentalists from the music department at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The performance is sponsored by the COA-Community Lyceum and precedes the 1977-78 series' final event on April 7, a presentation of "The Fourposter", by Stage Down Under from the Norfolk Theater Center at Scope. Observance To Cite Future Leaders

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) club members at John A. Holmes High School are joining over 125,000 secondary students in the country in observance of FBLA Week, March 13-17. FBLA is a national organization operated on the secondary and post-secondary school levels in all 50 states, as well as Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

FBLA membership is composed of students who are enrolled in some type of business activity in educational institutions throughout the nation and who are, typically, planning a career in the business field. The organization is supervised by advisory committees comprised of business teachers, school administrators and business and professional people, who assume the responsibility of planning and guiding chapter activities.

The thirty-three FBLA members at John A. Holmes High School and their chapter advisors, Mrs. Theresa Kerber and Mrs. Grace Byrum, have planned numerous activities to involve the student body in the FBLA spirit during this special week. Activities emphasizing FBLA week will include the distribution of pencils to the entire student body, sponsoring an FBLA dress-up day and selling FBLA candy. Representatives from King's Business College will also address the Holmes business students and conduct a workshop for the student body. A movie on FBLA will be shown to business students.
