

STUDENTS CLOWN AROUND AT SWAIN — "Come to the circus, the Greatest Show on Earth," advertised the Ringling Brothers Circus and go they did! The SCOPE attraction for students in Mrs. Hollowell's, Mrs. Byrum's, Mrs. Stalls', and Mrs. Wilkins' 5th and 6th grades at Ernest A. Swain School turned into more than just a day at the circus. The events under the BIG TOP became a language arts experience for all students, who were required to research circus information prior to this trip. Papers, poems, vocabulary words and songs written by students were just a few of the ensuing activities motivated by the adventure, which was a first for many students. Through students' art work, center the upper halls of E.A. Swain were literally trans into a circus arena, canopy and all. Climaxing the activities was Clown Day, when students and teachers came to school depicting characters seen at the circus. Left photo features Siamese twins Bill Gardner and Bobby Jones, and clowns Patricia Ashley, Beth Rinehart, Kenneth Comer, Roland Cooper, Win Kinion, Faith Lewis, Tracy Spivey and Mrs. Byrum. In the right photo Mrs. Patricia Byrum, 5th grade teacher, is shown in full dress, as she barks for all students to visit the schools "GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH."

The next class is scheduled for April 26 and we hope even more families participate.
