Double Ring Ceremony Unites Local Couple

Miss Dianne Jordan and Mr. Jackie Bass, were united in marriage, February 19, at 2 o'clock at Chappell Hill Baptist Church.

Rev. Billy Old performed the double-ring ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Miss Julie Best.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Annie Jordan of Tyner, and the late Fernando Jordan. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baker of Roxobel and the late Mr. Jack Bass.

Given in marriage by her brother, Paul Jordan of Elizabeth City, the bride wore white organza gown. Cotton venise lace enhanced the bodice and trims the full, sheer sleeves. Edged in delicate lace, the lovely scooped neckline is raised in back. Flowing A-line skirt curves to a sweeping chapel train.

Her veil was a headpiece that frames the face. Cotton venise lace and seed pearls match the gown. She carried a white Bible covered with a lace cover with white carnations and red roses.

Miss Christine Jordan of Tyner, sister of bride, was maid of honor.

Attending as bridesmaids were: Mrs. Katherine Copeland of Tyner, sister of bride, and Mrs. Breida White of Roxobel, sister of groom.

Rebecca Jordan of Merry Hill, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Mr. Baker served as best man. Ushers were: Jarvis Copeland of Tyner, brother-in-law of bride, and Ed White of Roxobel; brother-in-law of groom.

Miss Jane Copeland of Tyner, niece of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies.

The bride's mother wore a coral two piece polyester knit dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue two piece polyester knit dress. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception was held at Center Hill Community Building, Tyner, following the ceremony.

The bride changed to a red, white, and navy blue dress and wore a corsage of three red roses lifted from her Bible. They are making their home at Lewiston.
