

Phillips, Jones, Fry Win Victories In Primary

By L. F. Amburn, Jr.
A political novice, George E. Jones, was nominated to the Chowan County Board of Commissioners and C.A. Phillips also won in Tuesday's Democratic Primary election. Cecil W. Fry, former assistant superintendent, beat two female opponents for a six-year term on Edenton-Chowan Board of Education in a non-partisan election.

Another race which drew considerable local attention saw

Mayor Charles D. Evans of Nags Head triumphed over incumbent Rep. Vernon G. James for one of two seats in the First House District. However, Evans carried the eight-county district by more than 700 votes. Rep. James was second and incumbent Rep. Stanford White trailed by nearly 3,000 votes.

Jones defeated N.J. George, chairman of the commissioners, and Harry A. Spruill, Jr., an Edenton town councilman, for the First Township seat. Nomination in the primary is tantamount to election since there will be no Republican opposition in November.

Jones polled 1,141 votes to 718 for George and 186 for Spruill.

Phillips, former board chairman with a lengthy record of involvement in public affairs, defeated Lueta C. Sellers, 1,256 to 742 for the Fourth Township seat.

In the school board race for the Fourth Township post being vacated by Morris Small, Fry received 783 votes to 597 for T. Gwen VanDyyn and 554 for Thirza B. Shields.

Evans received a total of 10,937 votes to lead the incumbents in the First House District. Rep. James received 10,228 votes while Rep. White garnered 7,517. Evans won big in Dare County and also carried Tyrrell County.

Rep. James was the leading vote-getter in Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden, and Currituck. Rep. White led the pack in Washington.

On the state ballot, Luther Hodges received 1,051 votes in his bid for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate, also as many as the seven other candidates on the ticket.

Rep. Walter B. Jones, as usual, was the heavy favorite of Chowan voters. He received 1,681 votes to 208 for James J. Bonner and 71 for Gene Leggett.

Judge Walter E. Brock received 699 votes in his bid for Associate Justice of the State Supreme Court with Judge Robert M. Martin getting 600. Judge David M. Britt received 876 for another high court seat and Reginald Frazier received 551.

Court of Appeals Judge Richard C. Erwin received 1,057 in his bid for full term with Austin B. Campbell gaining 404.

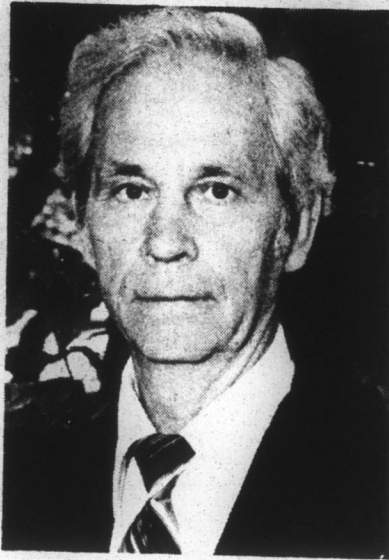

The Chowan County Board of Elections reported a total of 2,231 votes cast. This is 42.57 per cent of the registered voters

Rep. Vernon G. James

Charles D. Evans

Cecil W. Fry
