

College Production Slated

UNFREESBORO — One of the most popular plays in the history of the stage will appear on the stage of Chowan College's Dowell Columns Auditorium the week of October 27-28.

"Dracula" features Frank Underwood of Edenton, Va. in the title role. Director Sandra Joyce, formerly of Chowan College, said Underwood is perfect for the part with his movements and deep, full, and sinister voice. Joyce said that Underwood, a freshman, has much experience in modeling playing many high school leading roles.

The director explained that the current production is one of the more interesting versions in that Dracula has three wives in the world of the undead and is wooing the earth.

He said the sight of the three wives appearing on stage "at the same time with their long finger nails flowing hair and voices that could not come from man lips" will not be for the faint-hearted.

Another major role, that of Renfield, the resident idiot of the sanatorium, is played by Bernard Ingram Laurinburg. "Renfield provides necessary comic relief. Bernard Ingram will convince you that he is indeed insane," Mrs. Joyce edited.

Other leading roles are played by Becky Brasie as Lucy, sought by Dracula; Mayes of West Point, as her fiancé; Bob Hopkins as her physician; Jeff Anderson of Aulander as Professor Van Helsing, the authority called in to help solve the vampire mystery; Rhett Coates of West Point, Va. as Jonathan Harker, who is under the spell of Dracula's wives; and Penny Jones of Edenton as Jonathan's wife, Mina. Mrs. Joyce said the live organ music provided by music major Daniel White "will help create the mood as do the special effects, scenery and costumes."

The play opened Wednesday and runs through Saturday at 8 P.M. A 1:30 P.M. matinee will be held on today (Thursday).

Admission is $3 for adults and $1 for students. Group rates are $1 per person. Mrs. Joyce may be contacted for additional information at 919-398-4101, ext. 256.

Letter To The Editor: Morgan's Motives

Dear Editor:

In the campaign for Senate, it is amusing to watch Senator Morgan present himself as a conservative. I have known Bob Morgan personally since 1960 when we worked together in the contest between Lake and Sanford. Even then, there were those in the Lake organization who questioned Morgan's motives.

It is well known that Morgan did what was politically expedient and turned his back on Dr. Lake when he spoke to the NAACP in Charlotte during his first campaign for Senate. He told them the only reason he handled Lake's campaign was that he felt an obligation to his old college professor. I happen to have been in the presence of Dr. Lake when Morgan begged him to run for Governor and volunteered to manage his campaign.

The facts prove that Bob Morgan is not a man of truth.

He is now presenting himself as a conservative fighting inflation. This is another misrepresentation of the facts.

I could ask that you examine his voting record on issues that have caused inflation; however, I will only examine one - foreign aid.

From 1946 to 1979, our Government granted 194-billions of dollars to foreign governments. Morgan voted in favor of the majority of this spending during the last 6 years.

Two of Morgan's recent votes come to mind: The Panama Canal issue which will cost the taxpayers over $300-million, and his recent vote in support of $75-million in aid to communist Nicaragua.

The multi-billion dollar figure is so staggering as to defy comprehension, but the figures are black and white.

The foreign countries that compete with our automotive industry also receive foreign aid. Does this make sense? Our subsidies help them be competitive, while our companies go broke. Is Morgan Conservative or Liberal?

Sincerely,
J.C.D. Bailey

OLDER AMERICANS HAVE A FRIEND IN ROBERT MORGAN.

Robert Morgan thinks it's foolish to spend billions of dollars on research finding ways to help our people live longer if they're going to spend those extra years in want and misery. Throughout his public career, as a member of the State Senate, as Attorney General and now as United States Senator, Robert Morgan has worked hard to help insure the dignity of older Americans. He believes we have an obligation to those older persons who have devoted their working years to help build this country. His record in the United States Senate shows he cares:

• Supported legislation to increase the amount of salary older Americans can make and still draw Social Security

• Supported efforts to raise the mandatory retirement age from 65 to 70

• Supported the Older Americans Act which provides for congregate nutrition programs, Meals on Wheels and money to help find jobs for low income citizens over 55 years of age

• Sponsored a bill to exempt the first $200 in savings interest from taxes for individuals and the first $400 for couples

• Supported efforts to make the Social Security Fund financially sound

• Sponsored legislation providing grants to medical schools that teach geriatric medicine
