

Hospital Auxiliary, Friends, Have A Ball

PRE-BALL EXERCISE — The Chowan Hospital Auxiliary Ball began Saturday evening with a series of patron parties. One such pre-ball activity was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creighton. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Phillips are welcomed to the party by Mrs. Creighton, who is aided at the door by Jim Brown.

GETTING IN 'UNIFORM' — Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith paused at the door of the National Guard Armory to receive decorative beads from Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wackelin, right. Mrs. Smith is auxiliary president.

Mardi Gras

MESSAGE FOR THE KING — A new feature of the annual ball was the crowning of a King. Mrs. Will Parker reads the proclamation as Cam Byrum assists with the microphone.

Mardi Gras

DECORATE ARMORY — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe were in charge of decorations at National Guard Armory. A host of auxiliary members and their mates gave able assistance.

MR. CHAIRMAN — Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Harrell pause during the ball to pose. Harrell is chairman of the board at Chowan Hospital.

STILL MANAGE TO SMILE — Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker, left, as well as Mr. and Mrs. David Henson were still able to smile after the work of putting the ball together. Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Henson were co-chairmen of the event. Henson is hospital director.
