

Cancer Society Honors Volunteers

RALEIGH — Volunteers with 20 years or more of service will be honored by the N. C. Division of the American Cancer Society at a special luncheon on May 14 at the Sheraton Crabtree Motor Inn in Raleigh. "The Year of the Volunteer", theme of Sen. George Wood, division president, will be manifested by also honoring the Task Force on Cancer Awareness Among Blacks and the Auxiliary of the N. C. Medical Society. Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr., will welcome all volunteers and guests at the luncheon.

The special guest speaker is Dr. Harold M. McNeill, president of West Virginia State College. A native of North Carolina, Dr. McNeill held a joint appointment as extension district supervisor and assistant professor in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at N. C. State University from 1956 to 1968. He also served as Associate Professor and Head of Sociology and Director of Field Studies at Bennett College in Greensboro before his move to West Virginia.

A special award will be presented to Judge John D. Larkins, Jr., of Trenton for 40 years of volunteer service. Judge Larkins was the first representative of the N. C. Division to the National Board of Directors. He served as division president in 1954 and later presided at the First National Cured Cancer Congress in Washington.

The public is invited to attend the luncheon. Please call the N. C. Division office, 834-8463, as reservations must be confirmed.

Armed Forces Day Celebration Is Scheduled

ELIZABETH CITY — An Armed Forces Day celebration is scheduled here Saturday at the Coast Guard Air Station. Events begin at 10 A.M. and run until 4 P.M. The public is invited and there is no admission charge.

Coast Guard and military hardware, experimental aircraft, parachutists and an array of demonstrations will head up the entertainment.

At 1 P.M. the U. S. Navy Chuting Stars precision parachute team will present a demonstration. At 12-noon the U. S. Coast Guard Atlantic Strike Team will perform. There will also be water search and rescue demonstrations and there will be aircraft displays as well as hanger displays.

Culpepper Wins Raffle

W. T. Culpepper, III, a local attorney, has received $100 in free groceries at A&P as the result of a contest by the Gifted and Talented Class at Ernest A. Swain School. The students conducted the event to make money for a trip to Raleigh.

Ruth Bailey, second drawing winner, will be able to purchase $50. gas from the Edenton Trading Post. During their overnight educational field trip, accompanied by Mrs. Betty Bissette, teacher and Mrs. Linda Shaw, parent, the 15 students will visit the Governor's Mansion, Museum of Natural History and the State Legislature in Raleigh, the Planetarium in Chapel Hill and the State Zoo in Asheboro.

Each student has been given an educational assignment to perform while on the trip.

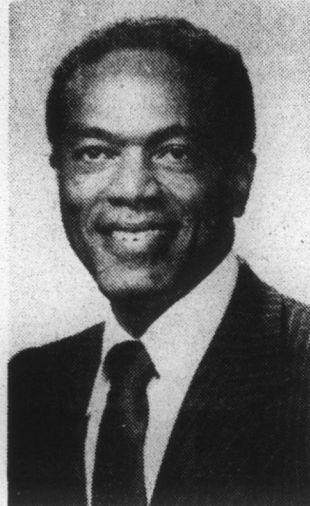

Local Students Graduate Candidates

CHAPEL HILL — Three students from Chowan County are among degree candidates for the 1981 spring graduation at the University of North Carolina here. They are: Joel Walter Hylton, Jr., of Edenton; Robbie Nan Stutzman Country Club

Drive, Edenton; and Neva Lea Whitt, Robin Lane, Edenton.

The lucky man is the one who forgets his bad luck.
