

The Carolina Review

MORE HIGHWAYS ... "Vote no gas tax or drop dead," said one serious opponent to Governor Hunt's highway tax plan. That comment was made in what was described as a "deluge" of opposition arriving in the General Assembly mail last week. The senator who received it says he still supports the governor's package. According to his secretary, the mail was running in favor of the proposed tax plan until last week, "when the Congressional Club got into the act."

In spite of growing opposition to the "Good Roads Package," the plan escaped the Senate Finance Committee last week for direct action by the full Senate this week.

The bill made it out of committee by virtue of several votes by members who don't necessarily support the legislation.

"I was obligated only to get it out of committee" said one senator.

But one strong Senate proponent of the bill was feeling confident by week's end. "Oh, we might put a couple of small amendments on it, but that's all," he said.

"It depends on who you talk to," said another senator who hadn't made up his mind. "I've had a lot of good people for it and I've had just the opposite. It's a pretty sticky situation," he said.

Either way, some North Carolinians might be able to read the preliminary Senate results on the bill at the same time they are reading this report.

No matter. The House must also consider the same legislation (companion bill) - after waiting to see how the controversial plan fared in the Senate. House opponents will have had even more time to organize and to measure public opinion against the proposals.

After the House establishes its version of the road plan, then the two bodies must get together for concurrence. By the time that happens, then there ... well, right now anything can happen.

INTEREST RATES ... Although it wouldn't seem possible, the Senate has had time to act on a couple of other controversial bills recently. The ceilings on virtually all bank loan interest rates were raised last week. Contract loans, second mortgage loans, and consumer installment loans were all included in the legislation.

Most supporters of the bill said the rates would not rise immediately. One banker was quoted as saying that the rates "are not going to be controlled by legislation but by competition."

The legislation was passed under protest from some members of the Senate who felt Lt. Gov. Jimmy Green, as presiding officer of the Senate, had given favorable rulings on behalf of the banking lobby.

HAZARDOUS WASTES ... The Senate also last week approved legislation regulating hazardous ATTEND WORKSHOP - Five secretaries from the Albemarle Conservation District recently attended a state-wide workshop for Soil and Water Conservation District Secretaries held in Raleigh. Those attending were (from left to right) Shelby White, Chowan; Elizabeth Winslow, Perquimans; Nancy Webb, Pasquotank; Phyllis Timmerman, Camden; and Susie Pratt, Currituck. The three day training session on the management of Soil and Water Conservation Districts was conducted by the Division of Soil and Water Conservation in the N. C. Department of Natural Resources and Community Development. Around forty-five district secretaries from across the state were present for this workshop which included sessions on program development, communications, administrative matters and education programs.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

HOW THE BIBLE NAMED A DOG!

THE FIRST SCHOOL FOR TRAINING DOGS TO GUIDE THOSE WHO ARE BLIND WAS FOUNDED IN 1929 BY ITS FIRST PRESIDENT, DOROTHY HARRISON EUSTICE, AND MORRIS FRANK WHO HAD BEEN BLIND SINCE AGE 16.

THE PHRASE WHICH GAVE THE SCHOOL, AND THE DOGS, ITS NAME WAS TAKEN FROM THE BIBLE "THE SEEING EYE THE LORD HATH MADE..." (PROVERBS 20:12)

FOR MORE THAN HALF A CENTURY THESE PATIENT, INTELLIGENT "SEEING EYE" DOGS HAVE GIVEN GREATER FREEDOM TO BLIND PEOPLE IN EVERY STATE AND MANY COUNTRIES! MR. FRANK CALLS THE DOGS "GOD'S GIFT OF NEW EYES."

NEXT WEEK: LEGEND OF THE DOGWOOD TREE!
