

By Maggie B.

Hi, NEIGHBORS! June has arrived! Everyone looks forward to the month of June... it's traditionally the month of weddings, the beginning of summer, vacations for weary workers, Father's Day, and the day we honor the emblem of our great country, Flag

Day! When June came in Monday, it brought with it "manna from Heaven" - rain! Much needed rain, not just a drizzle, but rain which put smiles on the faces of the farmers and gardeners in the area. Speaking of smiles, share with me this essay from The Kleinknecht Encyclopedia, reprinted in "The New Age":

"Smiles is the longest word in the world - there is a mile between the first and last letters of the word. He smiled - and his home was a place of happiness. He smiled - and his co-workers in business worked better than in any other place of employment. He smiled - and his business clients and callers spoke well of him, and business increased. He smiled - and all who entered his office door were pleased to be greeted as friend and equal. He smiled - and followed the smile with a brotherly hand-clasp, and those who were discouraged and downcast went out and took a new grip on life and their work. He smiled - and while the years rolled on, he grew younger, because - he smiled."

This Lord's Day dawned bright and beautiful! The sights and sounds of nature were glorious to behold. Fresh, clean air filled one's lungs as a prayer of thanksgiving for the countless blessings of our Creator drifted toward Heaven. A perfect day for every one to enter the church of their choice for a spiritual refueling.

The fine folk gathered at Bandon Chapel for Sunday School were joyfully welcomed by Supt. Meta Mason. She read a letter from Hugh and Bea Peters (they visited with us last week) thanking everyone for their warm welcome which made them feel right at home, adding that no matter where they went, Bandon Chapel would always hold a special place in their hearts.

Supt. Mason announced that Prayer Meeting & Bible Study will be Tuesday at 7:30 P.M. in Fellowship Hall conducted by Pastor Bob. We are beginning to study the Book of Amos, which is just as applicable today as it was when written. Our Bible Study is taught in a manner that is easy for all to understand but if there are questions, they are answered in a way that makes it clear in one's mind. All of us need to grow in God's Word and we are very fortunate to have such a good teacher. Come out each Tuesday and join us. It will enrich your daily life.

Choir Practice follows Bible Study at 8:15 P.M. The BCWG's regular meeting is held at 10:30 A.M. on Tuesday in Fellowship Hall. Come out and join in the fellowship and fun. — Prayer List: When we pray, we always spray that God's Will be done. Only He knows what the future holds. Please add our friends to your prayer list. Bill O'Neal, Sr. is hospitalized in Greenville. Pray that they will find his trouble and correct it; Dot Benton is confined to Chowan Hospital and needs your fervent prayers; Wm. T. Webb, uncle of Henry T. Bunting, will undergo eye surgery at the Atlantic City General Hospital, Atlantic City, N.J., next week. Say a special prayer for him. Willie Long of Washington, N.C., brother of Steve Long of Arrowhead Beach, is confined to the Beaufort County Hosp., Washington, N.C. and needs prayer. Everett Chapman is very ill and would appreciate your prayers; I'm happy to report that our Guardian Angel, Hilda Wisner, is much improved. She's been confined to Chowan Hospital for a week but no visitors allowed. Cards would be appreciated to let her know you're thinking of her. The room number is 208; please remember Wallace Taylor; Dan Darden; Willinett Dilday; Meta Mason; Helen Headen; Len Koraska; Jeanne Church; families and loved ones of the men injured or killed in the disaster on the Carrier Nimitz last week; our Nation, its leaders and its people; our missionaries and our Pastor, Rev. Robert S. Harrell and his family.

— The Father's Discipline", Heb. 12:1-13, was the topic for our adults, taught in an interesting and enlightening manner by Stan Turbyfill. Aim was that adult Christian will evaluate the purpose of divine discipline in their lives.

— The beautiful arrangement of fresh spring flowers gracing our altar Sunday was given by Helen Skinner in loving memory of her husband, Henry.

— At our Worship Service Sunday, the Shepherd of Bandon's Flock, Pastor Robert S. Harrell, went out into the congregation to personally welcome and shake hands with our visitors, first-timers and our week-enders with whom he was not familiar. This has been routine for some time now and really does make one feel "wanted". Pastor Bob's inspired message was "Judge Not", Matt. 7:1-5. Brief resume follows: Five basic reasons were given and elaborated on as to why we should be careful in judging others:

1st: Judge not that you be not judged; 2nd: We seldom know all the facts involved in a particular situation; 3rd: We seldom know all that has gone into the other person to make him or her to act as he or she does; 4th: God has created each of us as individuals, with a distinct mind and personality; and 5th: Judgment is the prerogative of God.

— The covered dish luncheon Sunday after church was a big success! It was delightful ... well attended ... and an abundance of good, fresh vegetables, delicious meats and luscious desserts! With the good fellowship added in, what more could you ask for?

— In June, there will be a Covered Dish Supper on the third Friday, 19th. Mark this date on your calendars now so you won't miss out on the good food, fellowship and fun.

RECOGNIZED - Top Math students at Holmes High receive special recognition for their accomplishments. Cindy Pierce, right, instructor, pins a medal presented by Jefferson Standard Life on Marion Jones, top contest scorer from Holmes High. Kelly West also received a medal and certificate for her outstanding math abilities.

Students Are Honored

John A. Holmes High School students, who competed in math contests, recently were honored during an after school reception to recognize their achievements. Some honorees had represented Holmes High School in the East Carolina University High School Mathematics Contest, while others had participated in the Annual High School Mathematics Contest sponsored by Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company.

Kelly West and Marion Jones received special recognition for their mathematical accomplishments. As top scorer from Holmes in the Jefferson Standard contest, Marion was presented a pin. Kelly, in recognition of her outstanding work in math at Holmes this year, received a medal and a Certificate of Achievement, designed personally by a high school instructor. During Holmes Awards Day Program last week, an anonymous scholarship of seventy-five dollars was also presented to Kelly.

All ECU contest participants were chosen to represent Holmes High because of their outstanding work in their respective subject. Each was presented a Certificate of Participation during the reception. Students competing in different math categories were as follows: Algebra I - Susan Elks, Marlin McClain, Angela Lewis, Willene Jernigan and Martha Edwards; Geometry - Sharon Hollowell, Danny Hogan, Marvin Baccus, Karen Griffin and William Garret; Algebra II - Laura Underkofler, Marla Jordan, Anna Goodwin, Valerie Jerkins and Susan Lamb; Comprehensive - Kelly West, Karen Evans, Benita Ward, Lynn Dale, Charlene Evans and Eliot Atstupenas.

ON DEAN'S LIST BOONE - Catherine Elizabeth Newberry, Route 4, Hertford, was among 1,182 undergraduate students on the dean's list at Appalachian State University for the spring semester. She is majoring in speech pathology.

Founder's Day Celebration

The annual Founders Day celebration will be held at Chappell Hill Baptist Church, Route 1, Tyner, Sunday.

The Senior Adults of the church will be in charge of the morning worship service. Anne Asbell of Ballards Bridge Baptist Church will be the guest speaker. Special music will be rendered by the Senior Adult Choir.

Following the morning service, there will be a fellowship luncheon.

At 2 P.M. the annual Founders Day Singspiration will begin with singing groups from Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church, Hunters Fork P.H. Church and Chappell Hill Baptist Church participating. Special features will be Darryl and Crystal Stallings and the Baptist Four Quartet.

This is an annual event presented by Chappell Hill Baptist Church who along with their pastor, Billy Old invites all of their friends in the area to come and share in this time of fellowship and worship.

Chappell Hill Baptist Church is located on State Road 1002 between Belvidere and Center Hill.

Letter To The Herald Editor

Dear Editor, On behalf of the Correlating Committee for the leadership conference held last Saturday at Holmes High School, we would like to express appreciation to you and your staff for the coverage and publicity provided. Without the spirit of cooperation shown by so many, the conference would not have known the success it enjoyed.

Many thanks! Sincerely, Beth Taylor Co-Chairman Betty Manning Co-Chairman

NEW OFFICERS - The Chowan Junior High School PTA recently installed the officers for the 1981-82 school year. They are as pictured: Wallace Evans, president; Dianne Gramby, treasurer; Lloyd Wayne Evans, vice president; and Emily Byrum, secretary.

Series On Estate Planning Ends

Tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock at the Municipal Building is your last opportunity to attend the Estate Planning Series sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service.

Max Busby will discuss the "Laws of Estate Planning" and J. P. Timberlake will discuss "Inheritance Taxes." If you die without a valid will the State of North Carolina will gladly provide you with one. This means that your property will be distributed not by your wishes but by the wishes of the State. Prevent this from happening to you. Plan your Estate and make a valid will.

For detailed information, attend this Estate Planning Program tonight. Bring your friends and neighbors.
