If your children shun cooked vegetables, remember, offering them raw may be more appealing and is just as healthy. Most any youngster enjoys crunchy raw carrot and celery sticks, and refreshing cold tomato juice.

Honor Society Inducts New Members

Sunday afternoon at 2:00 in John A. Holmes library was filled with excitement and anticipation as the National Honor Society began its inductions.

The Master of Ceremonies was Al Bunch who gave a warm greeting to all inductees and their families. Four young ladies, members of the NHS, each spoke on the four qualifications required in order to be inducted into the National Honor Society, which are character, service, leadership, and scholarship. The importance of being in NHS was realized as everyone listened to the speakers.

Connie Lane, a senior and member of NHS, performed a melody on the piano.

Each member of the society had previously chosen one or two names of the inductees and presented them, one by one, with a ribbon made of the school's colors. Upon being pinned, the new member signed the membership book and lit a candle as a sign of membership and achievement.

The new members are: Jay Gibson, Rena Sawyer, Eric Strother, Sharon Hollowell, Butch Everson, Yolanda Banks, Emily Evans, Darren Perry, Steven Atstupenas, Cary Parker, Martha Harless, Ginger Ober, Shelly Stryker, Kim Baker, Marvin Baccus, Bryan Bass,

Dear BLANNE

Dear B. Anne, HELP! My house is a pig's pen and no matter how hard I try, it stays that way. I work 40-45 hours a week, I have a small baby and one who is 3 years old, but can't help me with the house yet! My husband works 40 hours a week, too. I feel that he should help, however, he doesn't. He knows how I feel, I've told him enough. I've finally gotten so disappointed in my house that I've given up hope! What can I do?

Signed,
Pig's Pen

Dear Pigs Pen:

Don't give up hope. Let your husband read your letter (even though he doesn't have to know it's from you) and my response. Maybe it'll jog him a little. By the time you get up and get ready for work, have the kids ready and your husband ready to go, you've practically done a day's work already. After your 8 hours you are off to another job. It's supper, baths, and the only time you have to clean. By bedtime you've put in about 15 hours in one day. That's 75 hours in 5 days! You have got to find a way to make that stubborn husband of yours realize he has to share the responsibility. If it takes a written out schedule for both of you, that's what you should do. Maybe he could take the children out to visit grandma or go to the store for an hour or two, just enough time for you to get a little cleaning done with peace and quiet. Remind your husband that since you have to share the responsibility of supporting the household, he has to take on some of the "woman's work." Good luck.

Bad Bite

A bad bite can cause a lot of trouble for children and parents. In dentistry, we call this malocclusion, the improper contact between teeth and jaws when biting.

There are lots of causes, including loss of teeth through decay or accident. Bad mouth habits can cause it, too, such as thumbsucking, tongue thrusting, or breathing through the mouth.

The best thing to do is pay close attention to your child's teeth as soon as they grow into place. First teeth or baby teeth have big effect on permanent teeth. By looking for wear marks and other signs a dentist can tell if crossbite or other problems are beginning.

As the baby teeth are replaced with permanent teeth, sometimes the new tooth may come through crooked or push other teeth out of line. The earlier problems are handled, the better chance your dentist has to correct them and keep your child's teeth healthy. Major corrective treatment, such as orthodonture, can often be avoided with proper early dental care.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT
DR. A. F. DOWNUM, JR. OPTOMETRIST
Spectator Vision
Only a few can make the big leagues in any sport. But as a spectator you can enjoy the drama and excitement of sports competition if you have good vision. And if you don't, you can get corrective glasses or contact lenses to make sure you're not missing a thing. Give yourself a test to make sure. Can you see the players' faces? Can you see the scoreboard? Do you notice any eye fatigue or eye strain when watching a sporting event - even when you're as close as your television screen can bring you? Do you miss key plays and have to wait for the sports announcer to tell you what you've missed? These are all signs that you need an eye checkup. Maybe you've never had any difficulty in seeing anything you wanted to see. But our eyes change with time. Sometimes the focussing muscles are not as strong as they used to be. When you're watching something at a distance for a long period of time maybe you notice some eye discomfort. Even a slight degree of distortion can cause problems. An eye examination is the best solution. In the interest of better vision from the office of: A. F. Downum, Jr., U.D. 103 W. Eden Street EDENTON 482-3218
