

United In Marriage

Miss Rebecca Louise Evans and James Richard Andrews were united in marriage at 2:00 on August 14, 1982 at the Immanuel Baptist Church. The Rev. Gordon West officiated the ceremony with the Rev. Ashby Browder assisting.

Mrs. James Richard Andrews

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Evans of Edenton. The groom is the son of Juanita Jones of Knightdale, N.C. Mrs. Janie Evans, grandmother of the bride attended the ceremony. Music was provided by Libby H. Taylor of Colerain with Gary Brower of Edenton, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace. Silk Vaneese lace ruffled the neck, bodice and fitted sleeves. The sheer yoke was accented with re-embroidered vaneese lace appliques. The gown was fashioned with a natural waist, accented by a silk ribbon, for the three tiered skirt and chapel length train. Each tier was ruffled with vaneese lace. The veil was cathedral length and trimmed with chantilly lace. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis lilies, morning glories and roses.

Miss Jean Myers of Merry Hill was Maid of Honor.

Bridesmaids were Jan Humphrey of Raleigh, Kathy Lane, Cindy Ricks and Rene Harrell of Edenton.

Ray Quinn of Raleigh was best man to the groom. Ushers were Willard Andrews, Jr. of Garner, NC, William Stoney of Wendell, Anthony Evans and Edward Evans, Jr. both of Edenton.

Heather Quinn of Raleigh was flower girl and Paul Copeland of Hertford was ringbearer.

Honor attendants were Brenda Massengill, Carla White, Terry Hardison and Beebe Creekmore of Edenton. Junior attendants were Lori White of Norfolk and Felisa Harrell of Edenton. Shelia Sampson and Teresa Harrell greeted guest. Mrs. Kathleen Lane of Edenton and Irene Quinn were co-mistress's of ceremony.

The bride and groom's mothers both wore formal length dresses of dusty rose.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and the groom's father served as best man for his son. Other

Nostalgia Day

August 14, was a day filled with interesting information and nostalgia, as the Edenton - Chowan Optimist Club sponsored Railroad Nostalgia Day. The day included rides on Southern Railways' famed "The Best Friend of Charleston" and a trip through the Exhibit car, also provided by Southern Railways.

The Best Friend of Charleston is a replica of the first train in the nation to offer regular train service for passengers. The Best Friend continued in this tradition as it gave rides to over 1000 of the residents of this area.

The Exhibit Car portrayed the story of Southern Railway's service development, and leadership in rail service. The story was portrayed in graphic and audio media along with samples of equipment and model railroad cars.

groomsmen were the groom's brother Chris Elliott of Coconut Grove, Florida and the bride's brother Jack Evans of Durham, Larkin Pahl, Raleigh and Doug Williams, Kernersville, N.C.

The bride wore a long sleeved tea length candlelight gown of embroidered organza in a star and flowered pattern and carried a cascade bouquet of camellias roses, lilies, and miniature roses. Miss Emily Jarman, daughter of the bride, was the bride's only attendant. Her gown was a miniature version of her mother's.

After a reception in the church Fellowship Hall, the couple left for a wedding trip to Topsail Island. They will make their home in Cary, N.C. at 1029 Castalia Drive. The groom is employed by Home Security Life Insurance Company as a Regional Group Manager. He holds a B.S. degree from N.C. State University where he was a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity.

The bride is a graduate of the School of Dental Hygiene from the University of North Carolina and is employed by Dr. Frank Morse of Durham, N.C.

A rehearsal dinner for the wedding party was given by the groom at Claire's and an after rehearsal party was given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Elliott at Hope Valley Country Club.

The wedding day brunch was given by Mr. and Mrs. I.J. Quinn at the Ramada Inn on Duke Street.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Morse entertained the couple with a dinner party for family and friends at their home in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Dixon, Jr. of Durham entertained with an afternoon of rest and relaxation and dinner at their lake cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pahl, Mr. and Mrs. Billy

Pahl, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Pahl, and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Williams gave a pig picking at "The Barn" on Wellington Road in Raleigh.

Revival Is Set

Revival services will be in progress at the Hawkins Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church of Edenton, from August 30 through September 3. The Rev. Proctor Freeman, Pastor of the Rebecca and Pilgrim Journey A.M.E. Zion Churches, will be the guest evangelist. Different choirs will render the music.
