

SWAIN'S COURTEOUS CLASS—Mrs. Copeland's fourth grade class has been named "Courtesy Class of the Week".

Courtesy Class Of The Week

Mrs. Mary Copeland's 4th grade class at Swain School has been chosen "Courtesy Class of the Week."

At Swain, when a class is chosen as "Courtesy Class of the Week", a courtesy banner is displayed on the classroom door. A courtesy trophy, donated by Edenton Cotton Mill, is displayed in the class. Each student wears a courtesy button at school during that week. The class picks up paper for five minutes during their Physical Education time each day. "Thought for Today" and birthdays are read over the intercom each day by a student from that class. On Friday, the class receives a courtesy treat.

Mrs. Copeland's class includes: Vanessa Baccus, Shelley Potts, Gina Swanner, Selena Bond, Clint Goodwin, Jody Brickhouse, La Tanya Wilson, John Smith, Todd Emmert, Andy Baskette, and Gary Bond.

The Bandon Chapel Notebook

By A Substitute for Maggie B.

A warm hello to all friends and neighbors of Bandon Chapel. You'll be able to tell at a glance, the notebook comes to you this week by a substitute for Maggie B. She is taking a well earned vacation which leaves us who are far less talented attempting to fill her shoes in bringing you our news and thoughts. We pray they will have a nice vacation and return safely to us in a fortnight or so.

The Adult Sunday School lesson, based on the 19th Chapter of Luke was brought to us by Kent Rowley. The story of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem promotes a lesson aim that each class member will evaluate their own level of sincerity in worship. It is my personal belief a Sunday School lesson; which always brings us an in depth study of the Holy Scriptures can be our daily guide to living a life of Christianity closer to the way Jesus would have us live. Our Sunday School Bible Study combined with our Worship Service, fills our soul with joy unsurpassed.

Sunday, February 6, 1983 was a memorable day for our Chapel. Boy Scout Sunday was observed. Scout Troop no. 172 with Scoutmaster Stan Turbyfill, presented a very impressive worship service. Their patriotic items included such wonderful hymns as "Battle Hymn of the Republic", "America The Beautiful" and "My Country 'Tis of Thee". The scouts took part throughout the service, taking the collection and special music was presented by Jerry and Terry Harrell. Stan Turbyfill brought us an outstanding sermon relative to the "Qualities of a Good Friend". Try to remember these: A good friend is one you can trust, will help you and do things for you when you're in need, dependable, honest, one you can confide in and trust to tell your secrets to, shares your sorrows and joys and one you can be comfortable with. The service closed with a choral benediction, "God Bless America" sung by both the choir and congregation.

Prayer List: When we pray, we ask that God's will be done. Please add our friends to your prayer list. Julie Edwards, sister of Bud Owens, is improving but still confined to Chowan Hospital; William Owens, son of Bud and Maris Owens still in hospital in Michigan; James Dale, brother of Rose Smith is confined to Maryview Hospital in Portsmouth, Va.; Louis Pillar; Henry Cahoon; Bob

"Lord, Help me live from day to day,
In such a self forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray;
My prayer shall be for OTHERS."
