Film Festival On Parenting Scheduled

A film festival on various aspects of parenting is scheduled for Wednesday, March 9, at 7:00 P.M. The public is invited to attend. It will be held in the AHEC building in Elizabeth City, across from the emergency entrance of Albemarle Hospital. The Albemarle Parenting and Childbirth Education Association (APCEA) is sponsoring the event and requests a $2 donation per person to cover costs.

The films to be shown are A Gift—An Obligation which describes the seven vaccine-preventable diseases and how they have afflicted many children in the past, causing serious complications and death. It explains why these diseases still haunt children even now. Another film, Free To Be You And Me, combines music and song, animated stories, and the talents of professional performers (Marlo Thomas, Harry Belafonte, Cicely Tyson, etc.) to present a "Yes I Can" approach for young children. Originally presented as an ABC-TV special, this is a great film for parents and children of all ages.

Children is a film which compares child-rearing and behavior guidance practices of people in different societies (from the Time-Life family of Man Series).
