Letter To Editor — May Play Day

Chowan Arts Council has again given me the opportunity to participate in May Play Day. I am grateful and thrilled with its success. The biggest thrill came in working with all the many people who gave so willingly of their time, talents, energy, and materials.

May Play Day is an arts festival sponsored by Chowan Arts Council as a public service, but it belongs to the people of Chowan County, city and rural. My vantage point as chairman allowed me to see, in numerous instances, that sense of community-ownership take shape and display itself in a finished product deserving our pride. People seemed to want to help make the day the best that it could be, and many times individuals saw a job that needed doing and simply did it, without waiting to be asked.

I doubt that any member of the planning committee or any of their respective committee members will deny that real work was involved, but I am personally grateful for the cooperative and enthusiastic attitude in which they all worked. Because of them and all the others who helped in any way, I am very much aware that I received more than I gave. If May Play Day continues to receive the support that it has received in 1982 and 1983, then May Play Day 1984 already has success built into it.

Letter To Herald Editor

Since so many people enjoyed the recent May Day at the Cupola House, I thought your readers would appreciate knowing about those who contributed their time and services, to make the event so pleasant. First and foremost, perhaps, were the volunteer gardeners under the patient direction of Frances Inglis who gave several Saturday mornings to bring the Cupola House's gardens into spring shape.

On May Day, the Garden of Eden Club provided lovely flower arrangements throughout the grand old house. The lady members of the Town Council and County Commission, and the wives of the gentlemen members of those groups, served punch and cookies to the guests. As at other such events during the year, members of the Cupola House Association acted as guides in the house.

Two special attractions were particularly enjoyable. Clifford Frettko, an accomplished artist and artist in Residence at the College of the Albemarle, entertained guests on several different types of flutes. And in the center hall, Mr. Donald Lennon displayed and discussed the 1731 Moseley Map of Eastern North Carolina. Mr. Lennon, head of the manuscripts division at East Carolina, personally brought the map to the Cupola House for May Day.

Our thanks to all of these people for helping make a beautiful day even more delightful.

Association

Poor management is the greatest single cause of business failures. Fifty per cent of businesses that fail are less than five years old; less than 20 per cent are more than 10 years old. In short, the older the business, the more unlikely it will fail.

Biting Your Cheek At Night

If you've noticed that you sometimes bite your cheek at night when you're sleeping, this may indicate a combination of problems, such as tension, irregularities in teeth surfaces, or improperly aligned teeth. Some people express tension by clenching or grinding their teeth, either while awake or unconsciously when you're asleep. When the lower teeth are rubbed against the upper teeth this is called bruxism. If you grind your teeth from side to side this may result in a bite or damage to your cheek or lips.

whatever is causing the tension. The dental aspects can be helped by your dentist. For instance, he can check the relationship of your bite to see if there are any irregularities in your teeth that are causing problems. He may suggest that you wear a Hawley-type appliance or a night guard to help break the bruxing habit. This will also give him another way of checking your bite to find out what dental problems should be corrected.

Business bankruptcies in 1982 totaled 65,807, 38 per cent higher than in 1981. The record-high number of bankruptcies in 1982 can be attributed to the residual effects of inflation, very high interest rates and the length of the recession.

Letter To The Herald Editor

We would like to express our opinion of May Play Day. It was super!

Unfortunately, the arts is something that a lot of people take for granted. May Play Day shows us that there is more to art than just painting a picture. It makes us realize that it takes lots of time and patience to be successful in these God-given talents. May Play Day paints a clear picture of this and at the same time, gives people of all ages a day to remember of laughter, singing, playing and just all being together with our county. Thank you, Chowan Arts Council.

As co-chairmen of recreation, it makes us very glad to have a day like this to get our young people involved in activities and entertainment that they also really enjoy.

As members of the Rocky Hock Community, we are proud that Chowan Arts Council has chosen our community these past two years for this special occasion. We feel it is very important for the people of Rocky Hock Community to become involved in such a countywide festival as this. Thank you for a day to remember in Rocky Hock. Ivan and Lynn Ober Recreation Co-Chairmen Rocky Hock Community Ctr.

Almost every energy-related innovation of the past century has come from small business - for example, the air conditioner, the gasoline engine, the electric light, the electric auto, and petroleum cracking.

Card Of Thanks

We would like to give a note of thanks to our many friends and relatives who have so bountifully blessed us with so many nice gifts. Since the loss of our home in a tragic fire, we have found through our loss many Christian friends and that God's love has been shown in many ways. May God bless you all, you are remembered in our prayers.
