NNCT Sponsoring Regional Amateur Photography Contest

ELIZABETH CITY—Northeastern North Carolina Tomorrow, Inc. (NNCT) is sponsoring a photography contest open to all amateur photographers within the 16-county region. The contest gives area photographers the opportunity to visually tell the story of northeastern North Carolina.

The photographs should depict various aspects of life in northeastern North Carolina. The photos can portray business and industries in the northeast, tourist attractions, agriculture, fishing, and other natural industries, or the region's natural resources. Although a wide range of subjects is permitted, the objective is to reflect characteristics that are unique to this area.

Each contestant may submit five prints, none smaller than 5"x7", or larger than 11"x14". Photographs entered in the contest cannot be more than one year old. The deadline for submissions is June 15. Professionals in the field of photography and the visual arts will judge the competition.

The contest is divided into color and black-and-white categories. Awards will be given for first, second, and third place for each category. The awards are as follows:

- First place - (Color) - $150, (Black-and-White) - $100
- Second place - (Color) - $100, (Black-and-White) - $50
- Third place - (Color) - $75, (Black-and-White) - $25

Prints become the property of NNCT, but the photographer retains other rights of distribution.

NNCT's Regional Pride Committee is sponsoring the photo contest to acknowledge the talents of amateur photographers in the region and to display their work. The long-range goal of the photography contest is to help develop a sense of pride in the region and to display their work. The long-range goal of the photography contest is to help develop a sense of pride in the region and thereby create a unified effort to enhance the future of northeastern North Carolina.

Entries should be sent to NNCT, ECSU Box 962, Elizabeth City, North Carolina 27909.

Asbell Selected To Attend Seminar

Amy L. Asbell of Tyner was one of eight Campbell University students selected to attend the Kenelm Foundation-Campbell University Tax Seminar held at the Weymouth Center in Southern Pines. The seminar featured a lecture by Sidney Kess, partner and director of tax policy and planning of the certified public accountant firm of Main Hurdman in New York City.

Miss Asbell, a senior trust major, is a member of the Baptist Student Union and the Gilbert T. Stephenson Trust Club. She will graduate in May with a bachelor of business administration degree.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. Asbell.
