

AHS Workers Praised

Two local women have received special mention in the American Heart Association's April newsletter. Carolyn White and Edith Nixon were praised for chairing the Chowan County Auction on March 27 which raised $8,300 for the organization.

Also recognized was Judy Mayo of Washington County, who chaired an auction there which raised over $6,300.

Juanita Staples of Camden County, development chairman, was called "an outstanding volunteer and a great organizer" by regional consultant Pat Storie of Edenton. Camden County has exceeded its goal for the AHA, as have Chowan and Dare Counties.

ton; and India, Mrs. Rebecca Rhodes of Columbia.

Following the studies those attending will have the opportunity to visit the marketplace and displays. Miss Ida Doraiswamy of Elizabeth City, a native of India will show slides of her homeland during this time.

Another feature of the study will be a covered dish meal, with recipes native to the Southern Asian countries, being served.

Elizabeth City Livestock Co. Loses Bonding

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Turner's Livestock, Inc. of Rt. 3, Elizabeth City, N.C., has been charged in a federal complaint with operating as a livestock dealer without a bond.

A U.S. Department of Agriculture official said the firm was notified its $10,000 surety bond had been cancelled and it must file a replacement bond in order to legally continue its dealer business.

B.H. (Bill) Jones, head of USDA's Packers and Stockyards Administration, said the firm has continued to buy livestock in eastern North Carolina and southeastern Virginia without a bond, despite the official warning.

Turner's Livestock has a right to a hearing on the administrative charges filed by USDA under authority of the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act.

If the charges are proven, the firm will be placed under a cease and desist order, similar to a permanent injunction. It could also be barred from doing business and ordered to pay a civil penalty.

Program Implementation Scheduled For ECSU

RALEIGH—Governor Jim Martin and Elizabeth City State University Chancellor Jim Jenkins have signed a contract that will bring the "One Week University" program to eastern North Carolina this summer.

The contract, signed in the Governor's Office in the historic State Capitol, calls for Elizabeth City State to host the program for 60 young people the week of June 21-26. The participants will be 15 and 16 year-olds who are currently enrolled in local Community Based Alternative Programs and state juvenile training schools.

"One Week University" is a well-conceived program which opens new horizons to its participants, giving them a greater opportunity to succeed in the world," Governor Martin said. He also had high praise for university officials, Department of Human Resources, members of the Friends of the Court Program in Elizabeth City, members of the Pasquotank County Community-Based Alternatives Task Force, and other area volunteers for their

NEWS FROM YOUR
CYANAMID AGRICENTER™

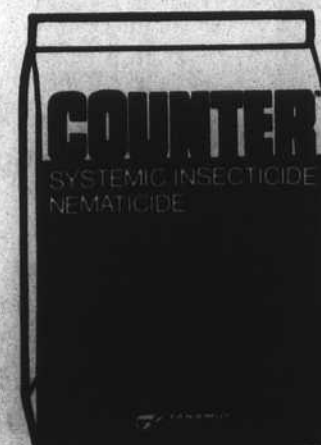

WHY WE RECOMMEND COUNTER FOR NEMATODE CONTROL IN CORN

THREE-WAY PROTECTION

COUNTER® systemic insecticide-nematicide controls a host of corn pests on contact. Systemic action spreads protection throughout the plant's system. And residual action handles pests that hatch later in the season.

PLANTING FLEXIBILITY Banded or in-furrow, conventional or conservation-till, COUNTER controls nematodes and other corn pests better than any other product. All at one low rate of application. And you can rotate to any crop the next season.

LOCAL SERVICE As your friends and neighbors, we feel that your service is just as important as product. And now, as your local Cyanamid AgriCenter, we can serve you even better. Stop by today. We'll help you put your money where your crop is. With COUNTER for superior nematode control.
