grandson of Mrs. Kathleen Skiles and Mrs. Bessie Leigh Rountree of Edenton.

The Rev. Robert Mark Alves performed the double-ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Judith Lea Harris, organist and soloists Mrs. Robert Mark Alves and Mr. David Christian Lehman.

Presented in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin. The basque bodice with a V-waistline was lavished with intricately beaded Schiffler lace preluded by a delicately scalloped V-neckline.

The gibbon sleeves, detailed with beaded lace cameos, ended in points over the hands. The Grand ball skirt and semi-cathedral train were embellished with lace medallions and encircled with a scalloped border of Schiffler lace.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a headband adorned with sequins and pearls with a two-tiered waist-length veil accented with pearls. Her accessories included a pearl necklace and earrings which complimented the pearls on her gown.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, miniature carnations, stephanotis, and freesia accented with ivy and white pearls and attached to her prayer book. The bouquet was designed by Mrs. Walter Newell Moseley.

Miss Kelly Rene Moseley of Wilmington, NC served as the bride's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lia Proctor Gennaro of San Marcos, CA, cousin of the bride; Miss Eleanor Lee Johnston of Roanoke Rapids; Mrs. Kecia McLawhorn Joyner of Roanoke Rapids, sister-in-law of the bride; and Mrs. Marcelle Daughtry Joyner of Clinton, NC, sister-in-law of the bride.
