The Chow an Herald

Wednesday, May 12, 1999

Published in the most beautiful little city on the North Carolina Coast

FLY-IN FOILED

Members of the local First Flight Flyers club in Edenton gathered at Lee's Airpark on Saturday to hold the areas first Ultralight Fly-In, however strong winds prevented the event going as planned. The fly-in is rescheduled for this Saturday, weather permitting. Club members expect to have between 10 and 20 ultralights and lunch plates will be available. Lee's Airpark is located twelve miles north of Edenton on Hwy. 32. The club members who attended last Saturday's event are looking forward to trying again. Pictured club members are (left to right) standing: Boyce Waterfield, Peter Nizborshi, James Morgan, Gary Swanner and Keith Harrell. Kneeling: Donald Fenner, Richard Bunch and David Sampson. (Photo by Debbie Collins)

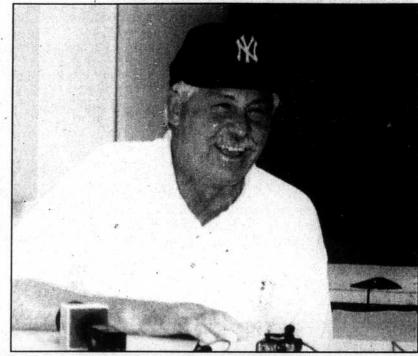

Friends, fans join in '99 Catfish Hunter tribute

BY LAURIE HUFFORD Staff Writer

The annual Jim "Catfish" Hunter Day observance and the 19th annual Old Timers Game kicked off the Jim "Catfish" Hunter ALS Foundation on Saturday, May 8 at Perquimans County High School. Special guests and baseball greats included Sal Bando, Tommy John, Alvin Dark, Ron Davis, Mike Hershburger, Jim Pagliaronia, Gaylord Perry (another Hall of Famer), and Jim Spencer.

It was Pagliaronia who first expressed the sentiments echoed everywhere, "...Yes, I'm supporting the ALS Foundation; that's one issue. But it's really the character of the man - why I'm here, and all these other great ball players are here too. There's a lot of people who have great talent in sports and in the business world, but...what you see here, and what you see out in the crowd, is really a tribute to the person Jimmy is.'

The date of May 8 for this event was no accident. Exactly 31 years earlier, the Oak- Hunter. Besides his perfect land A's Catfish Hunter, with Pagliaronia catching, pitched a "perfect game" against Min-

Jim "Catfish" Hunter

Anyone who knows anything about baseball is familiar with the name of Jim "Catfish" game, Catfish won over 20 games four times in a row with the A's, and was 23-14 for the Yankees. He became the game's first free agent. Arm trouble caused Hunter to re-

See CATFISH On Page 11-A

'FAM' Tour to be held here on May 19

Tourism Week, Edenton has its cil, Downtown Merchants, share of historic treasures Chowan County Extension, Af-(classified as Tier 1 sites, or rican/American Heritage, Chamber representative. ones that are already in place, Yeopim Township), and is dedi-accepting visitors). There are, however, precious reserves yet untapped (Tiers 2 and 3) this is where the Chowan County Heritage Development Council, and the Resource Team Famil-Tour iarization (scheduled for May 19) come into play.

As part of a group including a 19-county area, the Chowan County Heritage Development Council is composed of representatives from diverse organizations and backgrounds and cultural resources - are

In the shadow of National (e.g., Arts Council, Town Counimportant. We don't want to pending on the outcome of the

lose them," says Nancy Nicholls, Chowan County TDA/

Last week, in Perquimans

' The preservation of what we have - our natural and cultural resources - are important. We don't want to lose them.'

Nancy Nicholls

Chowan County Tourism Development Authority

"Managed growth is very important. The preservation of what we have - our natural cated to the preservation of a County, a federal resource vember 1998, under an initiateam visited with EPA agents and representatives from the Department of the Interior and Commerce, the Smithsonian Institution, and others. De-group's findings, Perquimans may be eligible to receive state and federal grants to farther develop the county's historical, cultural, and natural resources. May 19, it is Edenton's turn to host the FAM tour, with the interagency

Representatives Resource Team from Raleigh. Nicholls describes how the Chowan group first met in Notive started through NC's Northeast Partnership.

"We're all working together

See TOUR On Page 11-A

Rep. Bill Culpepper of the NC House of Representatives

Celebrating hope and opportunity is theme

BY LAURIE HUFFORD

Staff Writer The Democratic Women of Chowan County have been

Rep. Bill Culpepper and Sec. of State Elaine Marshall attended the meeting of the Democratic Women of the Third Congressional District on Saturday, May 1. The meeting, "celebrating the hope and opportunity of the new millennium", was held at the Dram Tree, Edenton, and was attended by women from Chowan, Craven, Dare, and Onslow counties.

Chowan DW Mary Partin introduced Rep. Bill Culpepper, who noted that, "... It's particularly fitting that you would have a political meeting like this involving women here in Edenton because this was the birthplace...in our country of political activity of women (Penelope Barker)."

The competitiveness of upcoming races was discussed, and the importance of political involvement was stressed. Sec. of State Elaine Marshall, the guest speaker, talked briefly about the "race of my life" against Richard Petty, and how people's hard work helped her to win. The importance of having good people in office, and the advantages of having a majority, were also addressed.

"...Our Party is alive and well," Marshall said, "... Today, we are in America's longest continuous period of economic prosperity. Unemployment is at a statistical 0!"

Marshall is a good source to hear this from, since the NC Dept. of the Sec: of State works with the state's business, banking, and legal communities. More can be learned by accessing their web site: http:// www.secstate.state.nc.us

In a general discussion that followed, concerns about absentee balloting surfaced, but possible solutions were also discussed. In the business session, it was decided that the same officers will serve again next year.

Mary Cude, NCDW State President, gave the next pre-

See THEME On Page 11-A

SUMMER CAMPS TO BE HELD IN COUNTY

Albemarle Recreation Center is scheduling six weeks of Summer Day Camps at Bennett's Mill Pond and the ARC farm at Valhalla, June 14 through July 30. From 9 a.m. until noon each day, campers will leran how to canoe, how to identify birds and trees and how to communicate with horses. Campers will experiment with peanut products, conduct outdoor science activities, learn how to play folk tunes on a harmonica and how to cook, camp-style. Grades 4-8 are included and the cost is $55 per weekly session. For more information, call the ARC office at 482-5769. Registrat ions are limited to 20 campers each week. (Photo courtesy of Bob Harrell)

Purple bows symbol of Relay support

Most of us know the significance of yellow ribbons, but what about purple bows? They show support for "Relay for Life" (week of May 17-23) and can be purchased for $3 at Byrum Craft Shop (Edenton), Dozier's Florist (Hertford), Country Flair (Hertford), or BJ's Unisex Beauty Shop (Hertford).

"...The mailman must have been confused...all the purple bows on the mailboxes!" smiles Frances Evans, longtime member (and a founder of) the Rocky Hock Ruitan's "Relay for Life" Team. ("Pink" is for girls, "blue" is for boys, but what is purple?!)

The Relay, a national program begun in Washington State, raises money to fight cancer. Proceeds go to the American Cancer Society (ACS), a leader in the fight against cancer since 1913. Cancer strikes 1/3 of all Americans.

"You or somebody you love

See BOWS On Page 12-A

Saturday, May 15 4:00 - 7:00 P.M. Center Hill Cross Road Fire Department

$5.00