

Puddleglum will be featured at the Summer Jam to be held in Edenton on July 5 (Submitted photo)

Summer Jam set here next month

Students and Athletes for Christ (SAC) and praise 105 will host Summer Jam at Swain Auditorium in Edenton on July 5 at 7 p.m. All youth are invited and churches are encouraged to bring as many youth as they can. Admission is free. Doors will open at 6:30 p.m.

Summer Jam will feature Puddleglum, a musically creative Christian rock band with a strong southern rock sound and a lot of soul. The band's name, "Puddleglum," comes from the character of the same name in C.S. Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia book—The Silver Chair—who becomes a guide Puddleglum's music, though entertaining, is intended to guide the listener to the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ. The band is made up of Chris Byers, Trae Drose, Britt Edwards, Mike Simons, and Phillip Wall.

Summer Jam will also feature the explosive rock band, Straight and Narrow; and a local up and coming contemporary Christian band, Foundation, featuring Chad Hardison, Phil Huey, Jonathon Brower, and Justin Holland. Special guests at Summer Jam are Moments of Glory; Scott Parker, host of the "Cutting Edge" on Praise 105; improv comedians Nic ring in the musical drama, "Under His Wings"; and SAC's Area Director, Jeff Butrum.

SAC is a student-led ministry that provides youth the opportunity to come together on their school campuses for bible study, prayer, Christian fellowship, and ministry. SAC provides local training and support for student ministry in our schools that include retreats, and summer camps.

Support for Summer Jam has been graciously provided by local businesses, churches, and individuals who support youth. See the flyer for Summer Jam and the Fourth of July Fabulous Festival in next week's Chowan Herald.

Budget

education, a public safety fund base of $3.1 million, and human services award $3.8 million.

Meanwhile, county revenues, which are projected to be approximately $20.7 million, receives its largest contributions from a $7.1 million federal/state fund and $6.2 million county tax pool.

Next year's proposed budget directs $3.7 million toward Social Services and $333,141 for county administration, both dropoffs from the previous year.

While referencing a North Carolina Institute of Government report, Sams questioned the appropriateness of County Manager Cliff Copeland's salary, which will be increased during the 2000-01 fiscal year.

"Chowan County now pays a higher salary... than any other Albemarle area county, even including Dare County, which has twice the population and seven times the property tax base," he stated. "The question is not whether Mr. Copeland does a good job... the issue is what is the fair compensation in the eastern North Carolina job market."

Commissioners Wayne Goodwin and George Jones quickly countered Sams' comments.

"...In order to get the best run county (system), you've got to pay the money," stated Goodwin.

"There's no commissioner in our area, that could have done what our county manager has done... no one, no where," Jones said. "We have something that no other county has."

Clarification offered

An obituary on Rufus A. Coats printed in last week's paper stated that he was the husband of the late Dorothy Lee Parker Coats. Actually, his wife survives him. We regret the error.

Mr. Rotarian

This spring, Frank Holmes was recognized as the "Rotarian of the Year" by the Edenton Rotary Club. Holmes was chosen by the board of directors for his long-term service and commitment to the club. (Submitted photo)

Correction is provided

In last week's story concerning the marriage of Amy Beth Jordan and Heath Chappell, ushers Bill Harrell and Chris Layton were incorrectly identified as groomsmen.

The groomsmen in that wedding were Chad Jordan, brother of the bride, of Edenton; Heath Chappell of Edenton; Gavin Eure, Jody Ward and Kelly Spivey, all of Hobbsville, NC.

The Chowan Herald sincerely regrets this error, and any distress it may have caused.
