

OBITUARIES

Anna B. Privott

EDENTON - Anna Belle Privott, 98, of 106 Mark Drive, passed away on Wednesday, January 31, 2018, in Edenton Primitime.

Miss Privott was born in Chowan County on August 30, 1919, and was the daughter of the late Charlie Daniel "Dan" Privott and Mary Jane "Mollie" Harrell Privott. Retired from the Rocky Mount Senior High School, she taught for 42 years in the Rocky Mount, Fuquay, and Williamston school systems. While living in Rocky Mount, she was a member of Lakeside Baptist Church, the Rocky Mount Garden Club, the Rocky Mount Business and Professional Woman's Club, and volunteered at Nash General Hospital. Presently the oldest member of Edenton Baptist Church, she had also been active in years past in the Delta Kappa Gamma Society.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by sisters, Erma Wiggins, Beulah Privott, Olivia Madre, Mary Ray, and Grace Blanchard; and by brothers, Lindsey, Ernest, Earl, Wilbur, and Carey Privott.

Surviving are nieces, nephews, and other extended family members.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2:00 p.m. in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home & Crematory, 735 Virginia Road, Edenton, and were conducted by her pastor, The Rev. David Brooks. Burial followed in Beaver Hill Cemetery. Friends joined the family in the funeral home the hour prior to services on Friday, and other times at the home of Sid and Norma White, 1709 Ocean Highway South, Edenton.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the building fund of Edenton Baptist Church, 200 S. Granville Street, Edenton, NC 27932.

Hilda H. Goodwin

EDENTON - Hilda Rae Harrell Goodwin, 84, of 750 Chambers Ferry Road, passed away on Saturday, February 3, 2018, in Edenton Primitime.

Mrs. Goodwin was born in Chowan County on October 13, 1933, and was the daughter of the late Isaac Lester and Lonie Evans Harrell. A graduate of East Carolina Teacher's College, now East Carolina University, with a degree in Accounting, she was a homemaker and farm wife, and in earlier years worked as a bookkeeper with Home Feed & Fertilizer. Raised in the fellowship of Rocky Hock Baptist Church, after marriage she became a faithful member of Edenton Baptist Church, where she was active in its W.M.U. and Laura Harrell Sunday School Class. She also enjoyed membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Colonial Dames of America, and the Chowan County Extension Homemakers Club.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph Wallace Goodwin, Jr.; two sisters, Marjorie Privott and Shirley Platts; a brother, Wilbur Harrell; and a son-in-law, Charles Collins.

Surviving are two daughters, Kathryn G. Ward and husband Bradley of Tyner, and Anna G. Collins of Raleigh; a son, Joseph W. Goodwin, III and wife Kim of Edenton; two grandchildren, Bradley Harrell of Tyner, and Sarah Goodwin of Raleigh; two brothers, Gerald Harrell of Raleigh, and Gene Harrell and wife Diann of Cleveland, TN; and two brothers-in-law, Joe Privott of Chesterfield, MO, and Paul Platts of Edenton.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in Edenton Baptist Church and were conducted by The Revs. David Brooks and Patrick Cardwell. Burial followed in Beaver Hill Cemetery. Friends joined the family at the residence.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Memorial Fund of Edenton Baptist Church, 200 South Granville Street, Edenton, NC 27932.

Miller Funeral Home & Crematory, 735 Virginia Road, Edenton, is handling arrangements, and online condolences may be made by visiting www.millerfhc.com.

Margaret White Chestnutt

'Peggy'

WINSTON-SALEM - Mrs. Margaret (Peggy) White Chestnutt died February 2, 2018 at Salem towne in Winston-Salem. She was born Christmas morning 1929 in Edenton, NC to Herman Franklin and Margaret Speight White. She was a registered nurse, graduating from the North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Nursing in 1950. She is survived by her three children, Bryan J. Chestnutt and wife Melisa of Durham, Mrs. Marsha C. LeDuke and husband John of Jacksonville, FL, and Bruce L. Chestnutt of Lake Panasoffkee, FL; five grandchildren: Maggie, Catherine and William Chestnutt of Durham, NC, David LeDuke of Jacksonville, FL, and James Webb of Winston-Salem; and two great-granddaughters, Regina LeDuke and Margaret LeDuke of Jacksonville, FL. She is also survived by sisters in Tennessee and Virginia.

She married James L. Chestnutt in 1950 and moved to Richmond, Va, where she was a member of the staff of the Medical College of Virginia. The family moved to Winston-Salem in 1964. James preceded her in death in 2008.

Peggy had been a member of First Baptist Church since 1965 where she served as a Deacon, Sunday School Teacher, Church Clerk, President of Baptist Women, Director of Woman's Missionary Union, Chair of the Finance Committee, and on several other committees. She was also WMU Director for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. She had served as a member of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of N.C. and its Executive Committee. She was the first woman in the Baptist State Convention elected to serve as President of The Council on Christian Higher Education, which at that time consisted of the seven Baptist Colleges and Universities in North Carolina.

While rearing her three children, she was also an active volunteer on the Red Cross Bloodmobile, N.C. Baptist Hospital, Girl and Boy Scouts, Meals on Wheels and Amos Cottage. She served as President of the Buena Vista Teen Study Club, the Shamrock Garden Club and was Devotional Chairman of the Winston-Salem Garden Council for a number of years.

From 1982-84 she lived in Bern, Switzerland where she was active in the American Woman's Club, continuing her volunteer work and was listed in Who's Who in Europe.

The family received friends from 10:00 to 10:45 a.m. in the Ammons-Lolley Commons at First Baptist Church. Funeral services were held at 11:00 a.m. Monday at First Baptist Church, 501 West Fifth Street, with Rev. Emily Hull McGee, Dr. David Hughes, and Rev. Lori Carter officiating. Burial followed at Forsyth Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Baptist Church, 501 West Fifth Street, Winston-Salem, NC 27101 or Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home, 101 Hospice Lane, Winston-Salem, NC 27103.
