OBITUARIES

Margaret Benjamin Kenealy "Peggy"

RUFFIN, NC — Margaret Benjamin (Peggy) Kenealy, 91, passed away on Friday, March 16, 2018 after a short stay at Hospice Home of Rockingham County in Wentworth, NC.

Born in Salamanca, NY on September 7, 1926 she spent most of her early years in Rochester, NY and graduated from Syracuse University where she was an active member of the Delta Gamma Sorority. While attending Syracuse she met John Cave (Jack) Kenealy and they married in 1951. After graduating from college, Peggy and Jack lived in St. Louis, MO and New Orleans, LA before landing in Kensington MD. They raised three sons and Peggy was proud of her work for the Prevention of Blindness Society as the Vision Screening Program Director.

They had visited the Edenton, NC area and loved it so upon retirement Peggy and Jack moved to Tyner, NC in 1992 where they spent several very happy and active years enjoying retirement. Peggy and Jack enjoyed collecting antiques and pottery, gardening, history, touring in the car and spending time with their family. A particularly favorite activity for Peggy was her volunteer work at the historic Cupola House in Edenton, NC.

After Jack passed away she moved to Ruffin, NC to be closer to family. She had a great love for her 3 sons and their families. Peggy will be sadly missed by all her family.

Her survivors include 3 sons and daughters-in-law: John Kenealy, who lives and works over-seas, and his wife Sarah of Randolph, Vermont; Mike and Penny Kenealy of Glenwood Springs, Colorado and David and Annette Kenealy of Ruffin, North Carolina; 8 grandchildren (Erin, Jake, Trevor, Scotlan, Clayton, Jesse, Dusty and Casey) and 3 great grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother Charles Benjamin, and his wife Cathy, of Pinehurst, NC. She was preceded in death by Jack, her husband for 55 years.

Peggy's wishes were to be cremated and have her ashes buried with those of her late husband in Edenton, NC. A Memorial Service will be held at Saint Paul's Episcopal Church in Edenton later this summer.

Harry Lee Winslow

BELVIDERE - Harry Lee Winslow, 85, of 613 Gliden Road, passed away on Thursday, March 15, 2018, in his home.

Mr. Winslow was born in Perquimans County on September 17, 1932, and was the son of the late Oscar Roy and Sobelia Williams Winslow. As a young man he served his country in the US Army during the Korean War. Retired from Production Credit Assn., now Ag Carolina, in earlier years he had worked with Morris & Hinton, Harrell Gas, Towe Motor Co., and Carolina Telephone & Telegraph Co. Always a farmer, he was proud of his family receiving the Albemarle District Conservation Farm of the Year in 1996.

A faithful member of Warwick Baptist Church, he had served as the church Moderator, Superintendent of Sunday School, and as a Deacon. Community involvement included his being a charter member of Unit 2 of the Edenton-Chowan Rescue Squad where he served for 20 years, his active involvement and work as treasurer in the Chowan 4H Jr. Livestock Show and Sale, service on the Chowan Hospital Board of Directors, serving as Chairman of the College of The Albemarle Board of Trustees, serving on the Chowan County FSA Committee, the Chowan Life Center Advisory Board, and the Chowan County Board of Commissioners.

Mr. Winslow was active and believed in all things Ruritan. From his membership and work in the Ryland Ruritan Club, he continued that area of service by being a Ruritan National Governor in 1991, serving as a Director of Ruritan National, and in 2011 received the Albemarle District Ruritan Outstanding Service Award.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Anna Rea Chappell Winslow; his step-mother, Clara Winslow; a brother-in-law, Excell Markham, and a sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Dorie Mae and Wallace Chappell.

Surviving are two sons, Joseph Lee "Joey" Winslow and wife, Florence, and Alvin Winslow and wife, Deane, and a daughter, Harriet Anna Winslow and husband, Jarvis "Dickie", all of Belvidere. Also surviving are two sisters, Esther Markham of Goldsboro, and Janie Proctor and husband, Willis of Edenton; two brothers, Elihu "Bill" Winslow and wife, Dot of Chesapeake, VA, and Waldo Winslow and wife, Nancy of Edenton; six grandchildren, Jennifer Thach (Lee), Nichole Layden (Brandon), Allison Eure (Towe), Jamie Winslow, Wallace Winslow (Maddy), and Lindsay Winslow; six great-grandchildren, Savanna Layden, Ava Thach, Sydney Eure, Rylee Layden, Ty Thach, and Fenlee Eure; his special friend, Mary Lou Ownley; his devoted care-giver, Tara Clark; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 3:00 p.m. in Warwick Baptist Church and were conducted by his pastor, The Rev. H. Kip Vinson. Burial followed in the church cemetery. Friends joined the family in the church immediately following the service, and all other times at his residence.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Ryland Ruritan Club Scholarship Fund, in care of Steve Knight, 455B Wingfield Road, Tyner, NC 27980.
