

C.T. Dixon, Jr.

EDENTON - Charles Thomas "C.T." Dixon, Jr., 85, of 2016 Rocky Hock Road, passed away on Thursday, April 4, 2019, in his home.

Mr. Dixon was born in Holland, Virginia on March 3, 1934, and was the son of the late Charles "Charlie" Thomas, Sr. and Lillie Hare Dixon. The retired owner of the former C.T. Dixon Logging Corp., he also had other business ventures through the years, including Mack Truck, Chrysler Automobiles, International Tractor, and Stihl dealerships. He was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Malcolm Dixon.

Surviving are his wife of over 66 years, Jackie Hall Dixon; two daughters, Marsha Gregory (Thomas), and Teresa Bateman (Ray); and a son, Randy Dixon, all of Edenton; a sister, Clara Peele of Edenton; a brother, Richard Dixon (Diane) of Jacksonville, FL; three granddaughters, Jennifer Spivey, (Kelly), Kimberly Brower (J.B.), and Jade Lassiter; and seven great-grandchildren, Jacob, Graham, and Layton Spivey, Lilly, Sadie, and Harris Brower, and Jaxson Winslow. Also surviving are special friends, Mark and Debbie Moreland.

Funeral services were held Monday at 11:00 a.m. in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home & Crematory, 735 Virginia Road, Edenton, and were conducted by the Revs. Bob Young, Bernie Hurdle, and Chris Graving. Burial followed in Beaver Hill Cemetery. Friends joined the family Sunday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the funeral home and other times at the residence.

Flowers are welcomed, or contributions in his memory may be made to Macedonia Baptist Church, P.O. Box 18, Edenton, NC 27932.

The family wishes to express their heartfelt appreciation to his caregiver, Denise Baker, and to the staff of Community Hospice, for the comfort they provided him during his illness and declining health.

Terry Marshall Nance

GRAHAM - Terry Marshall Nance, 61, passed away March 7, 2019 at Peak Resources Alamance after 1 year of declining health. He was a beloved son, brother, uncle, and friend who gave of himself to his family and friends while expecting nothing in return. The joy and laughter that he brought to family and friends on this earth will live on with them. He never let his disabilities define him and did the best he could with his many talents. He was born January 17, 1958 to George Grover and Ruth Deese Nance. Mr. Nance was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Jacob Eli Nance.

He is survived by his sisters Janet Allen (Richard) of Burlington, Sherry Jordan (Don) of Edenton, and brother Joel Nance (Susan) of Raleigh, along with four nephews, two nieces, and two great-nephews.

Marshall loved his family and enjoyed spending time with them. He loved to attend family reunions and visit with family members he had not seen in some time. He lived in Ralph Scott Life Services group homes for over forty years, making friends easily with his fellow residents there, as well as the care givers. Even in his short time at Peak Resources, he attracted the love and friendship of the caregivers and his fellow residents, who treated him with kindness and compassion. He will be missed dearly by his family and friends who will remember him by his beloved "Marshallisms". Growing up in the First Baptist Church in Mebane, Marshall enjoyed the music and loved "directing" the choir from his pew. He also enjoyed playing duets with his sisters and wore out piano seats over the years. Marshall loved to dance; he brought joy and laughter to his family and friends whenever he heard a favorite song and began his signature dance.

A funeral service was held at 2:00 PM on Sunday March 10, 2019 at the McClure Funeral Home Chapel in Graham with the Pastor Dennis Hill officiating. The family received friends one hour prior to the service on Sunday at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Ralph Scott Life Services, LLC at 408 Trade St. Burlington, NC 27217 or at (<https://www.rsls.org/donate/>).

Arrangements are by McClure Funeral Service in Graham at 1030 South Main Street, Graham, NC 27253 (336)227-2711

work, such as installing the picture moulding and made cabinet doors for the front and back cabinets. Kelloggs of Edenton donated the supplies.

Bergeron noted how much effort went into getting everything ready.

"We can't wait for you to come in and see what we've done," she said. "We just thank you from the bottom of our hearts."

Board President Regan Cox noted that the majority of the proceeds from art sold by the CAC goes back to the community. The organization has only one paid staff member, Gallery Manager Tabitha Morgan.

"After we pay the artist and our bills, the rest of the money goes back to the community," she said. "So that future generations can learn to appreciate the arts. That's why we're here."
