have to teach us how to use them as well. We're hoping to partner with the Boys & Girls Club as well and are excited to offer gaming.

A patron came in this past week looking for a 1972 John A. Holmes High School yearbook. We do have some of the yearbooks from the schools at the library, but nothing past 1969.

If you have an old yearbook or two or 10, we'll give them a nice home at the library.

as Indians' starting second baseman, Wendle also plays at shortstop and third base. According to Russell, Wendle has many fans in northeastern North Carolina, as he married Lindsey Miller, from Edenton.

As of Sunday, Wendle had three at-bats during the postseason, amassing one hit and one run. During the 2019 regular season, he had 238 at-bats, 32 runs with 55 hits and three homers.

Pitcher Chris Bassitt has been an integral piece of the Oakland Athletics' starting rotation this year. He played for the Steamers in 2010 and was drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the 16th Round in 2011.

This season, Bassitt amassed a 10-5 record with the Athletics, pitching 144 innings. He currently has a 3.81 ERA for the regular season, 3.84 over his MLB career.

Joe Smith was the first Steamers alumnus to make it to MLB. The Houston Astros' pitcher played in Edenton in 2005. New York Mets drafted him in 2006. While he has played on several teams during his MLB career, Smith has been in the Astro's bullpen since December of 2017.

Smith has pitched 25 innings for the Astros this season. His career ERA is 2.98, with 1.8 this season.

The Steamers' family is very proud of these players, Russell said.

"It is awesome to see how successful they have been in their careers since their time here in Edenton," he said. "We will be watching all of them closely during the MLB Postseason this fall. We would love to see one of them end their season with a World Series ring!"

Cross-country coach Matt Goetsch thanked the participants for coming out and supporting the teams. "Thanks again for your support. Hope to see you next year for the 3rd Annual Pace with an Ace, the morning of the Peanut Festival."

thought coach Smith was joking but he knew excellence when he witnessed it. Truth be told, Dorrance has never gotten his due and has been a longtime victim of his own success. How else do you explain a coach winning 21 national titles and only 10 conference coach of the year awards?

The university honored coach Dorrance last week by naming the new soccer field after him. It may have been a decade or two overdue but it was beyond warranted.

In a world with an abundance of self appointed G.O.A.T.s, he may be the only one where the A and T truly stand for all time... past, present and future.

Though Gates High School didn't field an entire team, the Euler boys deserve a bit of ink — Jacob Euler (19:21) and John Euler (21:21) — both Red Barons were top 10 finishers.

On the girls' side of the ledger, Itary Lopez led the Aces with a fifth-place finish (26:37); followed by Amanda Turner at ninth place (28:07); Hannah Hoffman at 17th place (34:41); Carrie Jenkins at 20th place (35:07); and Michelle Carpiette at 25th place (39:53).

Camden won the girls' meet, with Edenton finishing third behind Manteo in second place. Perquimans placed fourth.

Perquimans' Meredith DeCastillia led the Pirates with a 15th-place finish (32:45); Sydney Russell at 16th place (32:48); Carissa Baker at 18th place (34:50); Makaylah Whitley at 21st place (36:03); Greyson Pierce at 22nd place (37:17); and Jewel Benton at 23rd place (37:41).

Now, here is a quick bit about the Great Dismal Swamp. Did you know that in 1763, George Washington visited the area, and he and others founded the Dismal Swamp Company in a venture to drain the swamp and clear it for settlement, according to "George Washington: A Biographical Companion." The company later turned to timber harvesting.

A few years later, Washington went onto do even greater things. Maybe visit YouTube for this video from the musical Hamilton: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SWZy3zRbBHI>
