TUESDAY, SEPT. 10, 1895.

J. E. Smith gave us a Shannon apple yesterday hard to beat.
J. L. Johnson was up on business from Isabella, Tenn., last week.
L. P. Gilbert and wife are on a visit to relatives at Toccoa, Ga.

Miss Birdie Patton, spent Sunday at M. A. Hyatt's, near Tomotla.

Mr. John DeJournette and family have removed from Ellia to Dalton.
A. A. Howe, who runs a barber shop here, has located at Dalton.

Thad Bailey is filling the place of Agent Smathers during his rest from the office.

J. L. Martin, of Notla, dropped in to see us Friday and handed us a dollar.

The obituary of Miss Adelia Bryson, of Andrews, will appear in our next issue.

J. L. Wilson and family paid a visit to Graham county and returned a week ago.

Money from the sale of cattle and lumber is being circulated freely in the county.

Geo. W. Kinsey, principal of the Andrews school, was in town on business last night.

O. G. Martin and wife have broken up housekeeping and are boarding at Mrs. Ella Brittain's.

David Chance, of Rocky Branch, has our thanks for a reddish that weighed seven pounds.

J. H. Barnhill, the photographer, who went from here to Andrews, is now located at Bryson City.

Our graded school is moving quietly along. We trust it is doing well. There is no complaint so far.

Overseers who do not work their sections before court in October will get into trouble beyond a doubt.

A Sunday school convention will be held on Brasstown Friday before the fourth Sunday in September.

R. M. Bell and his bride, of Brasstown, were in our office on Friday. They look the picture of happiness.

Mr. Ben Posey has moved to the Henness House and will rent out his property on the hill on Peachtree street.

W. R. McLeod and A. K. Dickey have procured a stand for business at the exposition grounds in Atlanta.

Mrs. Rebecca Todd, from the eastern part of the State, is visiting her brother, E. P. Kincaid, who has been quite sick.

O. G. Martin, our clever postal clerk, resumed his run Sunday after being sick several days. Bass Dickey filled his place.

Mrs. J. L. Smathers and children returned home last Tuesday from an extended visit to relatives in Swain and Haywood counties.

Miss Carrie Parrish, who has been visiting at Andrews for a few weeks, has returned and says her trip was full of delights, not to be excelled.

Mr. Isaac Mayfield and wife, of Fort Worth, Tex., left Saturday after spending a few days with Dr. Mayfield and family, of our town.

Mrs. Dr. W. S. McCombs, after an extended visit to relatives at Blairsville, returned last Friday, accompanied by her brother, Tom Butt.

W. H. Rawlston, of Maryville, Tenn., spent the past week visiting his relatives, the Meroneys and Pattons, leaving for his home yesterday.

J. L. Johnson, of Macon county, was ordered before Dr. J. W. Patton, of our town, a week since for the purpose of getting an increase of pension.

H. B. Elliott made a trip to Dalton and Gainesville last week. The Nugget says if Daltonega gets her railroad that Mr. Elliott will locate there.

J. L. Smathers, depot agent of the Southern Railway at this place, who has been east for a rest, spent Sunday in town with his family, returning to Conolly Springs yesterday.

Hon. A. A. Campbell returned Saturday from Raleigh, where he had been in attendance upon a meeting of the Arrington investigating committee. Ask him to let you see his patent churn.

Mrs. W. R. McLeod, the milliner, is still selling at and under cost, making room for new goods. Call and see what wonderful bargains at cottage below the parsonage.

T. C. Dickey left last Thursday with beef cattle to Richmond, Va., and we learn that he wired R. Louis Jennys not to buy any more until he heard from him, the market was full.

To our many customers and friends: We expect from this forward to do a strictly cash business and sell goods for a less profit than ever sold for here.

We want our subscribers—those who are more than a year behind—to come in and tell us what they can do. We are not running a paper for glory nor for fun—it's a business transaction.

W. N. Cooper, of Cooper & Co., who is in New York buying goods, writes that he has purchased over 200 suits of clothing, besides a lot of odd pants. Watch out for a change in their big ad. next week.

We have received an essay for publication "The Power of Influence." We may be able to use it later on. We have glanced over it and pronounce it good, and only wish we had room for such articles.

Dr. T. C. Smith, the well-known wholesale druggist of Asheville, spent Thursday in town getting acquainted with our merchants. His card appears in another column, to which we direct attention. He has the largest drug house in the State.

From all accounts Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a godsend to the afflicted. There is no advertisement about this; we feel just like saying it.—The Democrat, Carrolton, Ky. Forsale by M. C. King & Son, Druggists.

W. A. McGlamery, of Clay county, was in town yesterday, and brought from Hayesville W. T. Bird and Jacob Buckney, of Buncombe county, who had been on a prospecting tour and were returning home. Miss Cordia Penland came this far with them, being a relative.

We were one of a large audience at the dedication of Bellview Academy last Saturday. We will tell you more about it later, but the people are a unit on the school. They are progressive, talk and act sensible. The dedication was a success and the school will soon be second to none.

Mr. T. M. Chambers, of Glenlock, Tenn., who has a late patent on a bedstead, was in our town last week wishing to select a suitable place for manufacturing the same, left Saturday and will be back soon to form a stock company. We think it an improvement on anything in the way of a bedstead that we have ever seen.

Mr. Jacob Esbensen, who is in the employ of the Chicago Lumber Co., at Des Moines, Ia., says: "I have just sent some medicine back to my mother in the old country, that I know from personal use to be the best medicine in the world for rheumatism, having used it in my family for several years. It is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It always does the work." 50 cent bottles for sale by M. C. King & Son, Druggists.

M. V. Richards, land and immigration agent of the Southern Railway, requests that the citizens of Cherokee county to select one-half bushel each of the finest varieties of apples that they may be sent to the Atlanta exposition. The apples should be carefully selected and the names of the apples and address of the growers to be given. Leave them with R. A. Akin or F. E. Lang.

By virtue of a decree of the superior court for Cherokee county, in and to the following real estate, situated in the town of Calhoun, in said county, to-wit: Town lot No. 8 as set forth on the map of said town, to which reference is made for metes and bounds. This Sept. 2, 1895.

Notice. By virtue of a decree of the superior court of Graham county, N. C., in and to the following real estate, situated in said county, to-wit: All the standing timber of marketable size on 89 tracts of land in said county, among which is poplar, oak, pine, chestnut and other valuable timbers; also, a large quantity of poplar and other logs cut and in or upon or near the banks of said county and county tributary to the Tennessee river.

The above property is sold by the undersigned as receiver by virtue of a decree of said court in the case entitled "A. C. Williams et al vs. The Crosby Lumber Co. et al," and persons desiring to purchase timber will find it to their advantage to investigate this opportunity. The standing timber is in short distances of tributaries of the Tennessee river, some of which are floatable streams, and upon others there is a large dam which can be used to convey logs to such streams as are floatable. The receiver is authorized by said decree to sell this timber, either publicly or privately, and should be glad to furnish further and full information to any one desiring to purchase.

If satisfactory disposition of the above described property is not made by private sale, then it will be sold to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door in Robbinsville, N. C., on Monday, the 4th day of December, 1895, within said hours.

J. W. KING, Receiver, Robbinsville, N. C.
