Marrid, Sunday December 29th, at the home of Squire J. A. Payne, on Bearpaw, Mr. Oliver Hawkins and Miss Susie Mashburn. The couple left for Ducktown immediately after the ceremony.

On Sunday night before Christmas the exercises at the Methodist Church by the Sunday School was very enjoyable, after which a bag of candy, nuts, etc., was given each scholar. N. A. Zimmerman's class of little girls received an extra remembrance from their teacher.

On Christmas morning at ten o'clock, little James Lucius Smathers, Jr., entertained very graciously about 20 of his big and little friends at a Christmas tree party. A sweet spirit of give as well as receive ruled among the happy group and altogether the occasion was enjoyable.

We have only this apology to offer this week. It is a hard matter to get all the locals during the holidays, as there are so many comers and goers, and we are sure that some have been omitted, because we have been kept indoors since Christmas day with a severe case of grip and could not get out.

The Christmas tree at the Baptist Church on Christmas eve night was largely attended and a nice program carried out. There were many pretty and valuable presents and each Sunday School student received a bag of candy, nuts, fruit, etc. Old Santa was present in full costume and made quite an impression on the children.

So far as the weather was concerned, Christmas day was an ideal one—clear, cold and sunshiny. But many wished for snow. The day passed off pleasantly and quietly. Everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion. All the stores, banks and offices were closed, and the men remained at home with their families. May the growing idea of a sane Christmas continue.

On account of the large increase in business during the holidays, the Candler Department Store Co. had to employ a floor walker and a force of 14 salesmen. Mr. Winslow Davidson made an ideal floor walker. Murphy and Cherokee county feel proud of the distinction of having the largest department store west of the Blue Ridge and one that ranks with the best in the State.

The splendid entertainment provided by the Benah Buck Quartet on Christmas night at the auditorium was one of the best ever given here under the auspices of the local lyceum committee. The large audience showed their appreciation by hearty applause, and each number on the program called forth an encore. Such high-class entertainments as this will make our lyceum course deservedly popular and our crowded columns this week prevents a more extended notice.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smathers had as their guest during Christmas week, Mr. P. T. Harrington, of Boston, a close friend and present landlord to their daughters, who are studying this winter at that city. Mr. Harrington was introduced to a great many of our people and proved to be a very interesting and cultured gentleman, showing hearty appreciation of his cordial entertainment while in Murphy. Mr. Harrington brings very flattering reports from all the southern music pupils in the classic city and says our Murphy girls are pleasing their tutors and friends tremendously.

First Tract—It being a part of tract No 138 in district No 5 of the waters of Little Brasstown creek, beginning at a pine, north cor of No 134, and runs w 80 poles to a spanish oak; thence south 106 poles to a small post oak; thence w 14 poles to a black oak; thence south 44 poles to a stake by a ditch; thence east 18 p to a stake near the spring; thence south 50 poles to a stake on the line of No 137; thence east 70 poles to a line of No 135; thence north with the said line 200 poles to the beginning, containing 103 acres more or less, with the following reservation, reserving to Robert S. Cunningham, his heirs and assigns forever to their use and benefit, all gold, silver or other precious and valuable minerals contained in and to be had with privilege of entering thereon to mine and remove same.

Second Tract—It being a part of tract No 137, grant No 2414 in district No 3, and bounded and more particularly described as follows: Beginning on a post oak on the line of No 185, and runs w course to the top of a ridge and with the top to a black oak or a conditional line made between R. S. Cunningham and J. W. Sumpter; thence with that line a w course to a small hickory on the top of a ridge on the line of No 137; thence of a ridge, including all of said tract No 137, grant No 2414, north of the aforesaid ridge, containing 88 acres more or less. Said lands are to be sold to the R. S. Cunningham home place. This January 1, 1913. J. L. WITHERSPOON, Commissioner.

NOTICE

North Carolina—Cherokee county: In the superior court, before clerk, Jesse S. Dickey, adm'r of E. K. Dickey, dec'd, vs H. A. Dickey, D. K. Moore, M. C. Moore, J. B. Dickey, T. L. Dickey, J. S. Dickey, C. W. Slagle, Myra L. Slagle, J. H. Hyatt and A. T. Hyatt.

To T. L. Dickey, J. B. Dickey, H. A. Dickey, Irene Dickey, Thomas Dickey and A. K. Dickey: The above named T. L. Dickey, J. B. Dickey, H. A. Dickey, Irene Dickey, Thomas Dickey and A. K. Dickey, and each of them, are hereby notified that in the above entitled cause Mrs. B. A. Warlick has filed an application and motion for order of court, in which she said application it is set forth, in substance, that on the 21st day of May, 1896, in obedience to an order of the court entered in said cause above entitled, Jesse S. Dickey, as commissioner, offered for sale at public auction parts of tracts Nos. 146, 152 and 153, when and where A. K. Dickey became the last and highest bidder at the sum of $1250 and completed with the terms of the sale. That said sale was confirmed by the court, and that subsequently, to-wit in June, 1896, and on June 6th, 1900, said A. K. Dickey transferred his said bid and all his right and title to said tracts of land to Mrs. B. A. Warlick, whose name at that time was E. A. Dickey. It is further set forth and alleged that the purchase price for said lands has been paid in full, and that Mrs. B. A. Warlick is entitled to a deed conveying same to her in fee, but that Jesse S. Dickey, purchaser of said aforesaid, has died without executing same, and she asks for an order of the court appointing a commissioner and directing and empowering him to convey to her the said tracts of land as more fully described in the original petition in said cause.

The above named parties, who are heirs at law of B. K. Dickey, and the above named A. K. Dickey, purchaser of said aforesaid, are notified that said motion and application will be heard in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee county in Murphy, N. C. on the first day of February, 1913, and that they are required to appear on said date and answer or demur to the same. This 23rd day of December 1912. A. A. MAIN, C. C. O.
