

WILMONT.

Editor The Scout: As I have not seen any locals in The Scout from my county, good old Jackson, I am sending you a few items from in and around my home township.

The people of Wilmont (my home town) are very much behind with their farming on account of so much rain. Many farmers are not yet through planting corn, although the wheat crop is looking very promising, still we can't tell about the crop yet, for I have seen good crops of wheat fail within forty-eight hours before harvest.

We are having a good Sunday School at our Baptist Church, although not as good as the writer would like to see. Nevertheless, it could be much worse than it is.

The Jackson County court was closed last Friday.

I would like to see locals from Shoal Creek Township and all other townships interested. I never was in Cherokee County but my mind directs me to the good people in your county to thank the people in Shoal Creek Township for the way they treated my father last week when he was in your county.

I want to thank the good old Cherokee Scout for the copies which have come to me. I shall endeavor to give all the reliable news from this section in the future if I see the print.

We have a good highway project completed right through our township, also good schools and churches and railroads. The writer has been informed that a State highway is soon to be built through your township way it would accommodate the most people.

Miss Annie Worley was in our little town shopping Tuesday.

Creek Township. Hurrah for the people of that township as that means so much for the people. If you could only see our highway, built through these rugged mountains here, you would work all the harder to get your road through Shoal Creek Township, whatever.

Miss Balah Bradley visited her mother, Mrs. E. H. Patterson, Friday.

Miss Florence Brown visited relatives and friends in Barkers Creek section Sunday.

Mrs. Corrie Denton was in town shopping Friday.

Mrs. E. H. Conrad and H. A. Patterson left here last week for West Virginia where they have accepted employment.

Miss Gora Mae Gibson is spending some few weeks in Casby, Tenn., with her sister, Mrs. Nora Turpin.

The Western Union Telegraph Company is improving their line between Asheville and Murphy by setting new telegraph poles. They are as far as Wilmont now. A crew of about fifteen men is at work on the line.

Mr. John Babby and family have moved to Kennerlyville, N. C.

WHY THAT LAME BACK?

That morning lameness — those sharp pains when bending or lifting make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Brevard resident's example.

Mrs. S. C. Hale, Whitmore St., Brevard, N. C. says: "I had a bad time with my kidneys and back. I had a dull, aggravating ache over my kidneys which made me feel tired out. When I bent to dust or sweep, sharp pains darted through my back and I could hardly straighten. Dizzy spells came before my eyes. Mornings I was tired and run down and my kidneys didn't act properly. Hearing of Doans Kidney Pills, I got some and they entirely cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hale had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

ADVOCATE RURAL ELECTRIC LINES

Electrical Interests Name Committee to Study Question of Taking Electricity to Farmer.

Adopting as its purpose the motto "Popularize the farm by powerizing it," the National Electric Light Association has appointed a special committee to promote the extension of electric power lines in rural sections of the United States.

The particular problems involved in this expansion of the existing power distribution lines will be studied with care. The most serious of these problems is the question of making it profitable to both power company and farmer for the distribution lines to be extended on the basis of cost involved. The cost cannot be reduced by the power company below a certain point, because a fixed amount of line materials has to be used whether the company serves ten customers or a hundred.

Yet it is recognized by electrical interests that if electric light and power can be taken to the farm it will greatly strengthen the arm of the farmer. More than that, it will prove a stimulus to the development of all agriculture.

The Electrical World has declared that the farmer is in the same position with reference to the use of electricity as was the manufacturer twenty years ago and that electricity is a method of helping him solve his economic dilemma, just as it aided the manufacturer. The Committee of the National Electric Light Association believes that electrical labor saving machines will save the day for the farmer's wife, for the farmer himself and for the hired help, which is scared at best and prone to be discontented if overworked beyond a certain point.

It was Marie Theresa, empress of Germany (1717-1780) who spoke the memorable words, "I want to meet my God awake." When dying she refused a dose of opium. Carlyle says of her: "She was most brave, high and plous; beautiful and radiant with good nature, though of a temper that would easily catch fire; perhaps no nobler woman lived."

In Memoriam.

James Selig, a well-known man of Copperhill, died at his home Thursday, May 29th, after an illness of a few weeks.

Mr. Aikin had been in excellent health for some time and had been to different hospitals for treatment. All known to medicine was done for his recovery, but to no avail. With his death was not unexpected to his relatives it was a great loss to his friends and those who knew him.

He was a son of Mr. S. B. Aikin was born and reared at Ranger, N. C., but for several years had resided at Copperhill, where he held a responsible position with the Tennessee Copper Company. He was widely known throughout western North Carolina, North Ga., and Eastern Tennessee.

He was a man of splendid character and ability, a Royal Arch Mason, and had been a member of the Baptist church for a number of years by which he will greatly be missed. Mr. Aikin was ever loyal to his church, was a devoted father and an affectionate husband. As a citizen he was one of the best highly respected and loved by all who knew him, and his loss we fully realize, yet we feel that God had a greater need of his service and called him to his eternal home.

Mr. Aikin was conscious until the last. He called his wife to his bedside and told her his life was fast slipping away, realizing that he soon must cross the great divide.

He was 57 years of age. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and five children, of Copperhill, Tenn.; his father, Mr. E. B. Aikin, of Ranger; and four sisters, Mrs. Mollie Prince, of Morganton, Ga.; Mrs. Nealis Henry, of Morganton, Ga.; Mrs. G. F. Ball, of Ranger, N. C.; and Mr. P. A. Mauney, of Kinsley, N. C.; and two brothers, Mr. Floyd Aikin, of Ball Ground, Ga.; and Mr. S. S. Aikin, of Ranger.

Mr. Aikin's remains were laid to rest in the Epworth Cemetery, near Copperhill, by the Masonic fraternity. There to await the coming of the life giver.

Living friends! Be wise and dry Every weeping eye— The shell is broken—'t lies there; The pearl, the all, the soul is not here.

Weep not, it is all in vain— Sunshine still must follow rain; Farewell, friends, farewell, Where I am ye too, shall dwell

I am gone before your face, A moment's time, a little space, When ye come where I have stepped, Ye will wonder why ye wept. A FRIEND.

LADY GOT SO WEAK COULD SCARCELY STAND

After Suffering From Many Female Troubles This Lady Heard of Cardui and Took It, She Says, "Until I Was Well."

"SOME TIME AGO," says Mrs. Buena McFarland, of R. F. D. 2, Bostic, N. C., "I suffered a great deal with weakness common to women. I had bearing-down pains, my sides and back hurt, and my limbs drew. I would get so weak in my knees I could scarcely stand. "I was very nervous, and could not rest. I didn't feel like eating. I grew thin, and did not have ambition for anything. "I had been trying other remedies... but did not get any better. "Some one told us of Cardui, and what it was recommended for. I also took a Ladies Birthday Almanac and read of a case—something like mine. I told my husband to get it and I would try it. "I saw a great improvement after the first bottle (of Cardui), so I kept it up until I was well. Now I am the picture of health. "Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others. Cardui has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Try it.
