Officer M. M. Young and W. F. Hill captured a thirty gullon copper still and destroyed about ninety gallons of beer under Charlie Hinesman's dwelling house. This still had been operated there for sometime and was near D. S. John Mason's home although Mr. Mason was suffering with rheumatism and was not able to be out, so they say.

Mr. Lakes Quinn, who is in school at Farmer, Tenn., was at home a few days last week.

Mr. Emory Torr says the boys all can go where they please, but that he had rather go West than any where.

We missed Mr. Leonard Brent, our singing leader, in our Sunday School very much Sunday, outside in company with Brother Brown as he had a long trip to make Saturday night.

Wolf Creek.

The ground hog must have seen two or three shadows, if that would have had any effect on the weather, for it remains disagreeable regardless of the fact that almanacs say spring began on the 20th, inst.

Mrs. Nora Morgan, who went some days ago to Cranston, N. C., to see a sick grandson, returned home Sunday with it and its parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Morgan. The baby is very feeble but it is thought that with careful nursing it will recover.

There has been little farm work done in our section, in the way of plowing, etc. The ground remains too wet to work, the most of the time.

We are hoping for a good fruit crop here this year as it still seems to be in good shape, whereas this time last year it had all been killed.

There have been more people subpoenaed to attend the next term of superior court than the writer has ever known before from this place, because of the trial of Dave Bryant for killing Lewis Adams here last summer.

Mr. Chas. H. Bates left last week for Ducktown to accept the position of book-keeper with the Isabella Dry Goods & Grocery Co. He is a fine young business man, sober, honest and industrious, and well qualified to fill the position.

The electric storm that visited this section last Wednesday night was the most terrific ever remembered. The hail storms were quite large, and the rainfall was immense. Bottom lands were badly washed. The elements and weather prophets do not always coincide, as this storm was not even predicted.

Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer, Mr. John Hall and Misses Norma Sherrill and Carrie Mallonee, Messrs. Briggs Gillespie, Ned Davidson, Ed. Howell, Omar West and Walter Mallonee attended the closing exercises of W. B. Sneed's school Friday night on Peachtree.

It is thought that the Hanging-dog bridge can be recovered. It is lodged intact against some trees in the river. Since the above was put in type we learn that Rufus Harsucker and a force of hands have torn the bridge to pieces and will soon have it back in position. It had washed some 300 yards down the Hiwassee river.
