"The Way of a Man," by Emerson Hough, author of "The Covered Wagon," at the Bonita Theatre Saturday September 13th, at 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., admission 15c and 25c. Don't miss it.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lentz left Wednesday morning for Dillsboro, to which point they have been transferred by the State Highway Commission. Mr. Lentz has been here about three years and Mrs. Lentz about a year and have made many friends who regret to see them leave.

Miss Edna Harwood, of Bryson City, was a visitor in Murphy this week. She formerly lived here and at Andrews. She will soon leave for Greensboro, where she will be a senior in the Greensboro College for Women.

Mr. W. V. N. Pawelson, of New York, was a business visitor in Murphy this week. Mr. Pawelson is president of the Carolina-Tennessee Power Company, which has large holdings in this section.

Bachelors—leave your coat unbuttoned and wear a low collar for they are going to make it hot for you in "The MICROBE OF LOVE."

Mrs. F. G. Clay is this week visiting relatives in Asheville and Columbia, S. C.

Announcements reading as follows have recently been received in Murphy: "Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Ray announce the marriage of their sister, Mrs. Fidelity Elgin McKaig, nee Arie Estelita Criss to Major Arthur W. Freeman on Wednesday the third of September, nineteen twenty-four, Mt. Rainier, Maryland. At home after September 15th, Smokemont, North Carolina." Mrs. Freeman used to live at Andrews. She is a sister of Mrs. J. N. Moody.

The wonderful "MICROBE OF LOVE" not only inoculates the actors in the plot, but it swoops right down into the audience and plays havoc among young and old alike. Indeed, this charming little play accomplishes all that is intended and more, for it causes people to laugh who have not laughed in years, and gives new inspiration to dozens of forlorn lovers scattered through the audience.

Messrs. D. S. Russell, G. T. Posey, G. E. Lall, S. F. Cover, J. C. Aarboogast Jr., R. S. Montony and wife have been among the Andrews' visitors here this week.

Mr. A. B. Anderson, of Robbinsville, was a visitor here one day this week.

The "MICROBE OF LOVE" converts the hardest hearted bachelors and business for the Murphy ministers will begin to pick up from the time it is staged.

Miss Frances Cover, of Andrews, is the guest of Miss Martha Candier for several days.

Mr. W. H. Meroney is moving to Asheville, N. C., where he will continue to engage in the insurance business as an agent of the Jefferson Standard company.

Mr. J. H. Billard attended Federal Court in Asheville, the first of the week.

Mrs. L. G. Watters, after spending two months here and at Hayesville, left Wednesday for her home in McInnour, Fla.

Miss Martha Candier was hostess at her home on Saturday afternoon to a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Robert Barclay, of Copperhill, Tenn., who before her marriage was Miss Mary Lou Thompson. The house was decorated in the pleasing shades of yellow and green with bowls of goldenrod and potted plants carrying out the color scheme. Two tables of brides and one of Michigan were played throughout the afternoon at which Mrs. Barclay held highest score for bridge and Mrs. Dobbs for Michigan. After a dainty luncheon was served, Mrs. Barclay was given a basket and told she must gather in the clothes which were hanging on the line in an adjoining room. She received many very useful and attractive gifts. Those asked to meet Mrs. Barclay were Mrs. Norman Davidson, of Atlanta; Mrs. E. C. Mallonee, Mrs. F. C. Hall, Mrs. J. N. Thompson, Mrs. Carl Dobbs, Mrs. L. G. Watters, Mrs. Jerry Davidson, Mrs. Laura Dickie, Miss Catherine Thompson, Miss Elizabeth Brittain, Miss Nannie Dixon, Miss Martine Mattox, Miss Lynn Albright, Miss Margarite Couch, Miss Carcie Ferguson and Miss Evanel Mauney.

Do You Need a Tonic?

Durham, N. Car.—"About fifteen years ago two of my children had whooping cough so badly that afterward their lungs and bronchial tubes were affected from the strenuous coughing. They kept getting weaker and I believe would have had serious pulmonary affection had it not been for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I gave them several bottles until they were entirely out of danger and well and strong. I would never hesitate in recommending Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a tonic after any prostrating illness, because it brings permanent strength."—Mrs. Josephine Arthur, 403 Toby St.
Obtain Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" now from your druggist in liquid or tablet form. It can safely be given to little folks as it contains no harmful ingredient. Write Dr. Pierce, President Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice.

Miss Helen Reese and brother, Louis, and Miss Annie McClure left September 3rd for the Deaf School at Morganton. Mr. Paul McClure accompanied them as far as Asheville.

Miss Helen Hall left the first of the week for Montreat, N. C., where he entered the Montreat Normal School.

Under Madam Cupid's magic spell, the "MICROBE" threatens to become an epidemic. The bug is small, but brightly active around the bachelors.

Rev. T. L. Sasser attended a conference of Sunday school workers in Bryson City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Clark, of Copperhill, spent the week-end at the Dickey Hotel with friends.

Mr. A. K. Dickey spent the week-end here with relatives.

Messrs. Mark West and Corbett Allen left Tuesday for Berea, Ky., to become students in Berea College.
