NORTH CAROLINA—Cherokee County Superior Court.
Before the Clerk.
Wofford Terrell Co., vs. W. C. Dills.
Notice of Summons and Warrant of Attachment.
To the defendant, W. C. Dills: You are hereby notified that an action entitled as above, has been begun in the Superior Court of Cherokee County to recover against you the sum of $420.64 with interest from August 1, 1923, until paid, the same being amount due for goods, wares and merchandise sold and delivered by plaintiff to you on your order; that the summons therein has been made returnable on the 30th day of May, 1925, and that an attachment issued at the same time as the summons has been levied upon all your right, title and interest on a certain lot at Wesser Creek in Swain County, formerly occupied by you as a mercantile stand, and said levy having been duly docketed in the office of the Superior Court of Swain County, which warrant of attachment is also returnable on said 30th day of May, 1925, and you are notified that unless you answer of demurr to the complaint within the time allowed by law, which complaint will be filed on or before the return day, the relief therein demanded will be granted.
Witness E. E. Davis, Clerk of the Superior Court, at office in Murphy, this April 29th, 1925.
