ARTILLERY UNIT OF NATIONAL GUARD SOUGHT FOR MURPHY

Captain H. L. Carroll of the Army Reserve Corps, Blairsville, was here this week. Captain Carroll is contemplating making Murphy his home in the very near future, and is interested in the organization of an artillery unit of the national guard at Murphy. He says that if sufficient number of men can be enlisted that it would be a certainty.

While here he talked with Chamber of Commerce officials and others interested and received much encouragement in the proposition. He stated that those interested should communicate with him at Blairsville, as he contemplates taking the matter up with the State officials for this section, and it is hoped that those interested will communicate with Captain Carroll.
