Ex-Officio Clerk to Board of Commissioners.

Wehuty, N. C., Nov. 23, 1925.

Editor Scout:
I want to inform the good citizens of Cherokee County, and especially the good people of Shoal Creek Township, that there is some dishonest person or persons making complaints to Governor McLean regarding me not being satisfactory to the people and citizens of this township as a Justice of the Peace and Notary Public, of which this statement is false and without foundation, and I will say that people making such statements are not honest people and I think the good law-abiding people should lock their doors against such characters. Those statements have only been made by two or three people who are enemies to me and some of them owing me money for over two years and won't pay me. The number of names I have sent in on the petition were secured by as good men and women as Cherokee County affords and there isn't a name on the petition but that of a good citizen. A lot of the best citizens in Shoal Creek Township signed this petition. Only a few that it was presented to refused and they are competitors to us in the mercantile business. We want the petition published to keep the dirty things from claiming that the names were forged on the paper. There hasn't been a kick by anyone on me—by any citizen in my precinct—and the one made the statement is not fit to live in the community with decent people who are good law abiding citizens. Furthermore, we lay it to their blame and principal. The signers of this petition most of them have known me for 18 years and know this is a framed up game by some two or three dirty things who should be working on the county road or in the insane asylum. I regard their charges as untrue and made in order to hurt my reputation and business. (Signed) W. T. HATMAKER, (copy)

Petition for the retention of W. T. Hatmaker as Notary Public and J. F.

To Governor A. W. McLean, His Excellency:

We the undersigned legal voters and citizens of Shoal Creek Township, Cherokee County, N. C., do hereby petition Your Excellency for the retention of W. T. Hatmaker as Justice of the Peace and Notary Public in the above named township, county and state, as we are not in favor of a few individuals in other parts of the township and county dictating who shall serve as our officers in Shoal Creek precinct and we further know that the said W. T. Hatmaker will enforce the law and vouch for his good conduct in office and further know that there is no dissatisfaction in this precinct against him and believe there has been fictitious reports against him by unreliable people. XMAS MONEY FOR YOU

Search Your Attic for Fortunes in Old Confederate Envelopes

Among the old letters of many Southern families are hundreds of very rare stamps and envelopes. Many have been found and sold for small fortunes. Single envelopes have been sold for as high as $2,000, and many have brought upwards of $100 each. It sounds "fishy," but it's true. They are valuable because they are rare. And they are rare, not because there are only a few, but simply because most of them have remained stored away and forgotten, in old trunks and closets. Make a thorough search through your attic or store room for these old war letters. Fortunes in rare stamps or franked envelopes have been found in old trunks which no one ever dreamed contained anything of value. Keep the letters if you wish, but send the envelopes to Mr. Harold C. Brooks, Box 223, Marshall, Michigan, and he will immediately write you, stating their value. In sending them to him you are not obliged to sell unless his offer meets with your approval. Anything not purchased he will return in good order. Mr. Brooks, who is mayor of his city, is a private collector and has paid thousands of dollars for old envelopes. Although the rare issues are especially desired he also buys many of the commoner kinds. Many people in this way are getting Christmas money with very little trouble and no expense.

The First National Bank of Marshall, Mich., writes: "Mr. Brooks has been in business here for twenty years. You will make no mistake when you recommend him to your readers as worthy of the fullest confidence, both financially and personally."

Mr. Brooks states that there are so many different stamps which are similar in appearance he cannot quote values from written descriptions, but must see the envelopes. There are, for example, ten different Confederate government stamps bearing the portrait of Jefferson Davis, and many local stamps or stamped envelopes are very much the same in appearance. The same is true of U. S. issues, the heads of Washington or Franklin being used on different stamps. Mr. Brooks does not buy loose stamps, stamp collections, coins or Confederate money. Stamps should not be cut from the envelopes and no dates written on. He is fully acquainted with all issues even though the postmark may show no year date. Those especially wanted are Confederate issues, but he also buys U. S., Canadian, Hawaiian, and certain foreign stamps provided they are on the original envelopes and mailed not later than 1865.

If envelopes are sent in a bunch they should be carefully packed in a cardboard box to protect them from damage while in the mails. If you have reason to believe your envelopes are of special value send them by registered or insured mail. If you have no old letters written during or before the Civil War, show this notice to your friends—especially those whose families have lived in the same home for several generations. Many old families, old banks and law firms still have stored away hundreds of letters, waiting to be burned or sold for large sums of money.

Mr. Brooks' address is as follows:
HAROLD C. BROOKS,
Box 223, Marshall, Mich.

ATHENS, TENN. TO EMPLOY COMMUNITY SALESMAN

East Tennessee City Going After Tourist Trade and Manufacturing Plants

The Knoxville Journal several days ago carried the story of how Athens, Tenn., is going after the tourist trade and manufacturing plants. The story is given here for the thought it should provoke. Murphy is situated more favorable than Athens, and has many advantages that merit exploitation as business propositions. The mayor of Athens is a brother to Mr. G. W. Candler, local retail merchant. The story in part follows:

industrial and business advantages and advertising of McMinn county's were launched with enthusiasm at a mass meeting held here Monday night which resulted in the preliminary organization of a Chamber of Commerce.

The organization is the result of a suggestion made some days ago by Mayor H. M. Candler that Athens employ an experienced salesman to supervise the exploitation of local opportunities and advantages for industrial growth.

Mayor Candler's suggestion has been accepted as one of the most practical ideas ever outlined not only by the citizens of Athens, but civic leaders in other cities of East

Tennessee.

Work of Salesman Outlined

His idea is that the salesman representative make personal visits to representatives of prospective industries looking for advantageous sites for the location of manufacturing plants. Bring ing the advantages of the community to the personal attention of prospective manufacturers and inviting them to check up the advantages offered in a personal survey is being accepted as the most effective method of accomplishing real results.

Mayor Candler suggests that the proposed representative not only

of prospective site seekers but that the prospects be invited to visit

Athens at the expense of the local organization to verify all claims made by the community salesman.

According to Secretary Roberts, activities of the Chamber of Commerce will not be confined to the promotion of the city of Athens, but will include the entire county and trade territory. "We are just as much interested in the progressive development of the entire county and the town located in the county as we are Athens because all contribute to the prosperity of the entire county and the individual cities," said the secretary.

County Co-operation Idea

"If we locate a manufacturing plant at Etowah, Englewood, or any other point in McMinn county Athens will get its share of the benefits and it is the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce to promote the progressive development of the entire county."

Mayor Candler, who is given credit for the suggestion, is enthusiastic in his appreciation of the special advantages to be found in Athens and McMinn county and expressed his opinion to the representative of the Knoxville Journal that there never was a time when greater opportunity was offered for the effective advancing of local advantages.

"Thousands of tourists are traveling through this section. Most of them are looking for climatic and other natural advantages for business and industrial activities and for more satisfactory living conditions.

"East Tennessee is reaping and will reap large benefits from tourists and home seekers who will become attracted by the conditions they see as they pass through.

Athens has an ideal tourist camp that is not only attracting many visitors but is giving satisfaction that is highly beneficial to the community

The camp, known as the Welch Tourist

Camp, is located on the Lee highway just outside the city limits to the west. It is on a beautiful slope facing the highway, in a beautiful grove and is provided with electric lights, hot and cold shower baths, barbecue furnace and other accommodations that are helpful and attractive to tourists.

Its hard to tell which is the greater calamity: the fellow that used to blow out the gas, or the fellow with a blow out and no gas.
