ADDITIONAL MARBLE ITEMS

Last Friday Mr. Hugh Robinson brought a fine load of table produce from Peachtree to his pastor A. B. Smith, and some money besides.

Mr. B. E. Palmer seems to have done considerable business hauling his own grown apples to Andrews. He sold for one dollar per bushel—cheap indeed; but all he asked, he did.

Mr. Garnett Robinson of Copperhill spent the week-beginning with his widowed mother, counseling about packing and moving to Atlanta.

Murphy's "Recorder's Court" drew nearly everybody from Marble to Murphy last Monday.

Mr. R. F. Jarrett, of Dillsboro, paid his old pastor and friend, Rev. A. B. Smith, a short visit last Monday.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the Fire Department Boys and the citizens of Murphy who have responded so readily in my two recent fires. How about a Banquet, Boys, in the part of the county, motored to town spring. MRS. NETTIE DICKEY Monday.

Mr. Clifford McNabb and mother, Mrs. J. M. McNabb were visitors here this week.

Mr. Tom Johnson, a prominent merchant residing in the western part of the county, motored to town Monday.
