them all the year?" "I want to build a chicken house and get me about five cows."

Now for the agent's answers: "Yes, we want to have a demonstration orchard and a fruit school over here who do you reckon would care for his orchard over here, and really means business, and went quit? We don't want to start with a fellow and him quit, we want you fellows to join in and let's do some real orchard work. There is big money in it if you will do it right. If you fellows don't mean business, really mean to stick and carry out the very best orchard practices, you had better leave it alone. It will cost you money if you begin and then quit."

"Now about this chicken business. Yes I am working on an order of chickens, during the last of March and April. As to whether you can make money with chickens lotted; well, let's figure it out. It takes 55 lbs. of feed to feed a hen one year, and it will cost you on an average 3c per lb. or $1.65 per year to feed a hen. A good Leghorn hen will lay 12 dozen eggs a year. You ought to average for fresh yard eggs (infertile) at least 40c per dozen the year round, especially when you cause your hen to produce heavy during October, November, December and January, when eggs are high. Mr. Will Winchester is receiving 40c per dozen for eggs in Asheville now, and this is the low season, from now to June. Now there are three things you will have to do: first, get good stock and keep them up; second, build a good warm comfortable house, and learn a balanced ration for chickens and give it to them every day in the year."

LETTERS

Feb. 12, 1926, Akron, Ohio.

The Cherokee Scout:

Dear Sir: I received one of your papers from my father yesterday and noticed a few lines about Akron, Ohio, which said that anyone who wanted to make big money to come to Akron. It was signed by some one here. I know that anyone can make good money here when they can get work in the rubber shops, but I have been here already five weeks and haven't got any work, and not any show for any soon. Some of the rubber shops are only running three and four days a week and I think it would be too bad for the people in Cherokee County to pay the railroad fare up here and have to return home without work. I know some of the boys there who were up here and went back some time ago and work is very little better here now. It will be some two or three weeks yet before work will be good enough to advise any body to come to Akron for work and if they are not an experienced hand in the rubber shop then they had better have railroad fare to get back home on or go somewhere else and get work. I have had eight months experience in the shops now in another state asking where a and can't get work anywhere. The laborers at the Goodyear shop have been trying to get better rates on their piece work but the company turned them down.

"CLEANLINESS IS NEXT TO GODLINESS"

Editor Scout: The streets of our town are in an awful state of uncleanness. They are littered from one end to the other, which presents a very bad appearance to citizens and visitors alike, as well as being a menace to good health.

Cleanliness, like Charity, begins at home.

CITIZEN

WHAT IT MEANS WHEN WE PATRONIZE BOOTLEGGERS

The first thing to think about is personal influence. All of us have influence. Even the poorest and most ignorant man has it. There is the influence of example, of fashion, of custom. Let a man or boy find that you drink and Neighbor A drinks and Neighbor B drinks and Neighbor C, and he decides that drinking is the normal thing. Let a man or boy find that you refuse to drink and it sets him wondering if he should not refuse also. There are those who drink and those who do not. You have one vote to cast, one man's influence to throw in the balance, for one side or the other. Which side deserves it most?

Then there is the influence of financial patronage or support. This is always important. Not a bootlegger would be in business today if somebody didn't make it to his financial interest to do so. Every time you order a quart of whiskey, you add strength, life, encouragement, stimulation to the bootlegging business.

And what is the bootlegging business doing? It is killing such young men as the one found dead in his car yesterday morning. No doubt he was once the pride of a fond farm mother, but today they are burying his body and her hopes in a disgrace that not even death can dignify. Nor are even girls exempt. On our table is a letter from a man young girl who has brought shame to her family and blighted all her future can be sent—and no doubt in the vast majority of such cases it is the dethronement of reason and prudence "taking a drink" that starts the tragedy.

These are, of course extreme instances. But all of us can think of other boys such as one we recall at this moment—a lovable, winning fellow with fine qualities of mind and heart who should by now have had a distinguished career and the happiness of a home, but drinking had defeated all the high hopes of his family and his friends. And all of us can think of women such as one we recall now—of fine family and fine character, but whose life is a tragedy because of what whiskey has done to the man she trusted.

Every time we patronize the bootlegging business, we help support, nurture, strengthen and protect an institution that is even now preparing to take some boy—maybe your boy or your neighbor's boy—and carry him to such a death as the poor fellow who died in his car yesterday morning. Every time you buy a quart of whiskey you throw your influence and your support to an institution which is destined to take some girl—maybe your girl or maybe some neighbor's girl—and make her life a tragedy for her and a heartbreak for her parents.—The Progressive Farmer.

How Doctors Treat Colds and the Flu

To break up a cold overnight or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza, sore throats or tonsillitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotaba, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined, without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotaba at bed-time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please,—no danger.
