

Local and Personal

Telephone 20

Mr. Chas. Zimmerman of Asheville is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sword.

Mr. Ivan Adams of Copper Hill suffered an acute illness at the home of Mr. John Ingram at Martin's Creek last week. Mr. Adams is a brother of Dr. N. B. Adams and holds a responsible position with the Tennessee Copper Co.

Miss Betty Kate McCombs entertained a dancing party at her home Saturday evening. About twenty couples were present.

HATCHING EGGS—From shepherds—Strain famous chickens $1.50 per setting delivered. H. E. JONES, Loving, Ga. (21-24-pd.)

It is understood that the Standard Oil Co. will at an early date erect a three story brick building on the Cooper corner, which they recently purchased from Dr. H. N. Walls. The dwelling, known as the Old Cooper homestead and a land mark is being razed. Time was when this was one of the most palatial homes in Murphy.

Miss Kathryn Thompson was hostess to a dinner party at Beechwood Camp Saturday evening. Covers were laid for Misses Elizabeth Brittain, Martha Candler, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Hoover, Messrs. Ed. Strickland, J. W. Ferguson, Jr., A. C. Richmond, Frank Marler.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, welfare worker for this county, is again at her duties after attending a convention in Greensboro and a visit with relatives in South Carolina.

Mrs. J. O. McCurdy suffered a severe attack of heart failure Tuesday morning but is better at this writing.

Mrs. T. J. Mauney and little son Richard spent the week-end in Knoxville. They were accompanied as far as Apalachia by Mr. Mauney.

Miss Wilma Allison of Sylva spent

Sunday with Miss Corcie Ferguson enroute to Atlanta where she will attend the Southern Hardware convention.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Tarlington of Andrews were registered at the Dickey hotel Monday.

Mr. A. S. Clarke of Copperhill spent the week-end in town.

Mr. M. L. Mauney of Peachtree was in town Monday.

A happy occasion for the very young society set was the children's party Mrs. Fred Johnson entertained Thursday afternoon, in celebration of the fourth birthday anniversary of her young son, Fred Johnson Jr. A color scheme of white and yellow was carried out in every detail. After a session of high carnival refreshments, consisting of yellow and white brick ice cream, cake, and mints were served.

The children present were: Jack Patton, Ann, Mildred and Martha Akin, Catherine and J. L. Abernathy, Tom Jr. and Len Axley, John V. Brittain Jr., Billy Dennis Jr. and Jack Barnett, Eleanor Covey, Mary Wilford Cooper, Virginia Dickey, Ruth Deeweese, John Davidson, Tom Evans Jr., Mercer Fain, Louise and Margaret Johnson, Richard Mauney, Elizabeth Parker, Ruth Speed Tom and Nick Posey, and Sarah Witterson.

Misses Wakeford and Cantrell teachers of Young Harris College motored to town Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. S. S. Christopher will be glad to learn she is convalescing from a siege of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Davidson and family passed through Murphy Sunday.

Mr. J. V. Brittain arrived Sunday from Asheville and is spending a short vacation with his family.

Judge and Mrs. J. M. Oglesby of Concord are at Dickey Hotel. Judge

Oglesby is presiding at the present term of the Superior Court.

LOST—Child's brown kid glove for left hand, finder please return to Mrs. A. S. Clarke.

Misses Lula Fain and Ada Harshaw and Mr. Kelsey Weaver are visiting in Asheville at this time.

Miss Maurine Fain is the guest in Blue Ridge of her sister Mrs. Whit Butt.

Mr. Claud Preece of Blairville was in town Sunday.

WANTED—Middle aged man. Must make $50 to $100 or more weekly selling Whitmer's guaranteed line of roller articles, splices, extract and medicines. Cherokee County is open for you. You only need town or car. Experience unnecessary. Salesmanship taught. FREE. Full information on request. Write now. THE H. C. WHITAKER COMPANY, Dept. 23 Columbus, Indiana. (21-24-pd.)

Mrs. J. S. Evans and Miss Juanita Evans will go to Atlanta, the last of the week on a shopping expedition.

Mrs. J. A. Richardson, who is taking treatment at Wesley Memorial Hospital in Atlanta is reported to be in satisfactory condition.

Mr. Dale Lee, of the U. S. Engineering Corps, stationed at Chattanooga, will arrive Friday night to spend the Easter holidays.

Misses Kathryn Thompson, Elizabeth Brittain and Mr. J. W. Ferguson Jr. were in Atlanta the first of the week.

The many friends of Mr. A. M. Brittain will be pleased to learn that he has recovered to the extent that he was able to be in town last week. Add to Locals.

Mr. Allen Lovinwood has recently been appointed substitute clerk at the local postoffice.

Miss Hattie Hall left Monday for Knoxville to attend Draughan's Business College.

Mrs. J. P. Hampton and children of Young Harris, Ga., were visitors here one day this week.

CANDLER-LEE

Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Candler of Murphy, North Carolina announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha, Matilda, to Dale Lee of Hornbeak, Tennessee the marriage to take place the fifth of May in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Candler is the second daughter of G. W. and Annie Abbot Candler. On her paternal side she is a grand daughter of the late Doctor James M. Candler of Hillsboro, North Carolina, and a direct descendant of Daniel Boone, of Kentucky fame, and General Griffith Rutherford, prominent military leader of North Carolina before and during the revolutionary war. On her maternal side she is a grand-daughter of the late James D. Abbott of Murphy, North Carolina and a descendant of staunch old Dutch families of the Mohawk Valley, New York.

Miss Candler received her preparatory education at Murphy High School. She then attended Sullins Colleg. Bristol, Virginia, where she held many responsible offices, among them being president of the Y. W. C. A. in her Senior year.

Mr. Lee is the only child of Joseph and Mary Stokes Lee of Hornbeak, Tennessee, and a grandson of the late John Lee. After graduating from Hornbeak High School, Mr. Lee attended Tennessee Polytechnic Institute at Cookeville, Tennessee, and is now connected with the United States Engineering corps stationed in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aiston have returned to Murphy, Mr. Aiston having accepted a position with The Royal Blue Marble Company.

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon at the church in their regular monthly business meeting. After the transaction of business an interesting program on Home Missions was rendered.

Among the prominent citizens of Andrews attending Court here this week were: Messrs. John A. Tatham, J. F. Bristol, R. F. Pierce, W. D. Whitaker, C. H. Jarrett, C. D. Hablit-

Listings Wanted

Davidson, Akin & Axley

INVITE

Listings of your property
Just now we especially want cut-over mountain ACREAGE

ALSO
FARMS LOTS RESIDENCES

OUR SPECIALTY: HARD WORK ON BEHALF OF OUR CLIENTS

DAVIDSON BUILDING
REAL ESTATE INSURANCE

zell, Sam Williams, Dr. Tidwell, J. W. Judge T. D. Bryson, J. D. Mallonee, Porter, R. A. Dewar, D. H. Tillitt, Local Attorney, is the candidate for J. E. Lail, W. W. Ashe, and J. A. Judge from Cherokee County. Earwood.

Mr. Riley Orr of Robbinsville was a visitor here Monday.

Mr. H. R. Hastings of Sylva spent the first of the week in Murphy.

Mr. N. J. Dunaway of New York is here this week buying a carload of chickens through the Farmers Federation of Asheville.

Among the candidates here this week in the interest of their campaigns were: Felix E. Alley, of Waynesville, for Congress; Thurman Leatherwood of Bryson City for Solicitor, Grover C. Davis the present incumbent for Solicitor; W. J. Hamah of Waynesville, T. J. Johnson Franklin and Walter Moore of Sylva for judges. There are four candidates out for the judgeship to fill the vacancy made by the retirement of father Frank D. Dickey.

Messrs. W. P. Goff, G. B. Garman and M. M. Bennett of Conitoe, N. Y. are spending sometime at the Regal Hotel while on a business visit to this section.

Mr. W. H. Woodbury of Biltmore, President of the Valley River Lumber Company, was here this week on business.

Mr. L. L. Heaton of Miami, Fla. was here this week.

"Oh, Alaric!" See him in "Peg O' My Heart" by local talent at the school auditorium Friday night.

Dr. E. E. Smith spent several days in Asheville this week.

Mrs. Frank D. Dickey announces the birth of a son on March 31st, to bear the name of its late departed father, Frank D. Dickey.

Investment Opportunities

We believe In Murphy and Western North Carolina

Our business is to bring the investor and owner together, and have negotiated sales in past two weeks aggregating thirty thousand dollars. List your property if you desire to sell. See us if you want to buy.

WE OFFER THE TWO LARGEST DEVELOPMENT PROPOSITIONS NEAR MURPHY

The Hitchcock Property, nineteen hundred acres, partially in city limits, fronting on Notla and Hiwassee Rivers embracing Cool Springs and Lovers Leap. Ideal location for Hotel, with necessary land, suitable for golf links, lake site, wooded knolls and ridges, clothed with native trees and shrubs. Liberal terms and the cheapest large boundary between Asheville and Georgia State line. $250,000.00

CHEROKEE IRON & MARBLE COMPANY PROPERTY

One Thousand Acres, fronting one and one half miles on State Highway No. 10. Deposits of Marble, Talc and Iron. Marble now leased under royalty with three thousand dollars minimum yearly. On Southern Railway Company with factory sites available. Land suitable for subdivision. $100,000.00 with liberal terms.

The Famous Sudowig Farm. Five Hundred acres, one mile from John C. Campbell Folk School and one-half mile from State Highway No. 28. Sixty acres river bottom, and eighty acres additional of bench land and creek bottom. Three hundred acres timber, practically all of which can be cultivated. Ideal stock or dairy farm. $18,000.00 with liberal terms. Will subdivide to suit.

The Dick Sutherland House and Lot in East Murphy. Beautiful lot 100 by 170 feet near Graded School. $3,000.00. Cheapest home in Murphy for small family wanting school facilities in desirable neighborhood. Liberal terms.

W. P. Odom & Company

Parker Building,
Murphy, N. C.

for Economical Transportation

The Coach
$645
Fok. Flint, Michigan

Low in Price.

yet has the quality features of high-priced cars

- Touring $510
- Roadster 510
- Coupe 645
- Sedan 735
- Landau 765
- 1/2 Ton Truck (Chassis only) 395
- 1 Ton Truck (Chassis only) 550

Prices f. o. b. Flint, Michigan

Think of buying for only $645 a beautiful Fisher body closed car, finished in beautiful colors of lasting Duco and offering such quality features as 3-speed transmission, balloon tires, Alemite lubrication, oil and water pumps, and Remy electric starting, lighting and ignition!

Come in! Learn how little it now costs to own and drive a quality closed car of modern design.

DICKEY MOTOR CO.
Sales and Service
MURPHY, N. C.

QUALITY AT LOW COST