

Mallonee's Friends Are Working For His Nomination

Expect Him To Carry Cherokee County By 1800 Majority—Has Good Chance For Election

The Cherokee County friends and supporters of Col. J. D. Mallonee for the superior court judgeship in this county met in the Library Tuesday evening and organized for the purpose of getting the voters of Cherokee County out to the polls Saturday day of election.

Arrangements were made to have signs placed at each polling place and a committee was appointed to see that all arrangements were made to get all the voters out.

Optimism over the chances of Mr.

Mallonee for election prevailed throughout the meeting and it was claimed that he would carry Cherokee County by 1800 majority. He will also run the other candidates a close race in their respective counties, and the vote in Cherokee, Clay and Graham Counties is expected to give the nomination to Mr. Mallonee by a safe majority.

Anyway, the friends of Mr. Mallonee in Cherokee and the other counties are working unceasingly for his nomination.

WOLF CREEK

The District Singing Convention at New Union Sunday was a success in every particular. There was the largest number of cars on the ground that ever gathered at one time, in one place, in this section. Several classes and musicians from many points were there to help make the gathering a success.

Many cars passed through our section Sunday and from the Decoration at Shady Grove church near Cuiberson. The roads were in fine shape for motoring and the people made the most of their opportunities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Simonds spent the day Sunday with relatives at Sweet Gum.

Some of our crops are already beginning to feel the drought. We are hoping it will not be so dry as last year.

Mr. Theodore Ledford, who recently moved his family from Isabella, to Blue Ridge, has moved them back to a house on his father-in-law's Mr. John Cook, place.

Mr. A. L. Bell an old veteran citizen who spent the most of his life here but who now lives at Mineral Bluff, Ga., was a pleasant caller here Sunday.

Miss Omega Garren who has been taking nurses training in the Florida Sanitarium at Orlando, Fla., is expected by her parents to arrive Wednesday of this week to spend her three weeks vacation with them. This is Miss Garren's first year there and she will have to spend two more before completing her training.

Uncle Sam and His Nephews, the States, Are Collecting Over a Billion Dollars in Yearly Tolls on Motor Vehicles and Fuel

More Than Meets the Nation's Billion Dollar Highway Building Bill—Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, Tells Striking Details.

By JUDSON C. WELLS

America has reverted to the ancient system of collecting tolls wherewith to build and maintain highways.

In 1925 these tolls amounted to $1,094,000,000, collected through motor licenses, gasoline taxes, property, corporation, income production and other taxes on automobiles, automobile manufactures, the petroleum industry, etc.

In the same year $1,003,000,000 was spent on rural roads. It took near a century to build $20,000,000,000 worth of railroads. A highway system costing that much will be created in twenty years at present rate.

Reynolds Friends Confident He'll Win

Raleigh May 31.—With only a few days to go, Robert R. Reynolds candidate for the democratic nomination for United States Senator, is emphatic in his statement that he will be nominated by not less than 25,000 majority. Mr. Reynolds stopped off in Raleigh to spend Sunday and rest a little after ten consecutive weeks of personal campaigning, and in that time he has practically covered the entire State.

"I know the situation better than any other man" said, Mr. Reynolds, "because I have actually visited the people. My organization is perfected and after hearing from my friends in every section of the State, I can state authoritatively that I will carry 69 counties. The others are doubtful and I am willing to permit the opposition to claim them, although it is not certain that I will lose all of them."

"The opposition is claiming victory, but this is done simply to discourage my friends and to endeavor to catch the "band-wagon" crowd. In the beginning of the campaign, Senator Overman announced that he would not pay any attention to my candidacy. Later he saw the hand-writing on the wall and named a State manager. Still later assistant managers were named. Then the work of perfecting an organization was rushed—the management found that my friends were ahead of them."

"This is my last statement before the primary and with knowledge of the state wide situation, after a conservative estimate, I am sure of a majority of 25,000. Thousands of friends are working in my interest and they will stick to the job until sunset of June 5."

HAYESVILLE GIRL WINS PRIZE OF $150 AND SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Otelia Crawford is Given Southern Championship in Third National Meat Story Contest

Miss Otelia Crawford, of Hayesville, member of the Home Economics Department of the Hayesville, High School, was declared winner in the Third National Meat Story Contest, by R. C. Pollock, General Manager of the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Miss Crawford's story was the best one submitted from the South, which gives her the award of Champion from the Southern District. The prize is a scholarship in the home economics department of some college, and $51 in cash.

Following is the letter addressed to Miss Crawford by Mr. Pollock acquainting her with the award:

I am very happy, indeed, to announce to you your success in the Third National Meat Story Contest. Thousands of girls entered from your district, so your competition was strong. This makes your honor all the greater for your story has been chosen as the very best one submitted from the Southern District. This decision was made by judges who are women naturally known in the field of home economics.

As winner of the first prize, you are the champion of the Southern District. This honor carries with it a cash of $50.00 and a scholarship for $150.00 in the Home Economics Department of any normal school, college, or university that you may select in compliance with the rules governing the scholarship as set forth in the Rules and Regulations. As a permanent record of your achievement you will receive a certificate of award signed by the judges of the contest. One of the recipes which you submitted was selected for honorable mention and this entitles you to a cash prize of $1.00. A check for $51.00 will be sent to you within the course of a few days.

The members of the National Live Stock and Meat Board congratulate you upon your accomplishment and extend to you all good wishes for your future success.

The article submitted by Miss Crawford is carried on The Scout's Agricultural page this week.
