Arzo Hughes, of the Martins Creek section in the Murphy Hospital suffering with a fractured skull as a result of being thrown from his car and his head striking against a stump. The accident occurred Tuesday evening about 5 o'clock several miles out from Murphy and was said to have been due to a bolt dropping from the steering gear, which became useless, the car leaving the road and striking a stump and throwing Mr. Hughes against it also.

Says Regal Hotel One Of Best Three In Southern States

John K. Ottley Jr., member of the staff of the Atlanta Journal, Atlanta, Ga., is authority for the statement that the Regal Hotel at Murphy is one of the three hotels in the southern states having a reputation of serving the best meals and extending the best service in the south, according to Mr. C. W. Savage, one of the owners of the Murphy hotel. The other hotels are located at Thompson, Ga., and Shelbyville, Ky., according to Mr. Ottley.

Mr. Ottley and his mother were recent guests at the Regal Hotel, and it was while here that he made the statement. The senior Ottley is president of the Fourth National Bank, Atlanta.

The Messrs. Savage, owners and proprietors of the Regal Hotel, are in receipt of a letter from Fred Houser, executive secretary of the Atlanta Convention and Tourist Bureau, to the effect that the Regal had been suggested as headquarters for the meeting of the Appalachian Scenic Highway officials here on August 21st.

Mr. Savage stated that the hotel is full practically from one week to another and that they are daily turning traveling men and tourists to the other hotels and private homes in town, and sending some also to Andrews.

DR. RANKIN OF DUKE FOUNDATION VISITS MURPHY

Dr. W. S. Rankin, of Charlotte, director of the Duke Endowment Hospital Fund, spent Tuesday in Murphy. Dr. Rankin came at the request of citizens of the county in the interest of securing charitable help for needy cases and a hospital in this section.

Dr. Rankin spoke to a representative group of citizens at the library building Tuesday afternoon and explained that the foundation could not help private hospitals and that the assistance of the Duke hospital fund hinges on publicly owned and operated hospitals. He stated that as yet no assistance could be rendered in helping counties or towns build hospitals.

Those who heard Dr. Rankin were well pleased with his discourse. He is reputed to be one of the leading health authorities and statisticians in the United States.

Improvements Made By C.T. Power Co.

Mr. T. N. Bates, manager of the Murphy Plant of the Carolina-Tennessee Power Company, announced this week that a five foot layer of cement had been added to the dam of the company across Nolichucky river at the power house, which gives several thousand gallons more of storage water.

This measure was taken, he stated, to take care of a possible shortage of water this summer caused by another drought. However, the rains of the past few weeks have about dispelled the fears of everyone of a shortage of water this summer.

The company has also made an ex-

Movie Play Finished On Santeetlah River In Graham County

Mr. S. M. Miracle, of the Famous Players Lasky Corporation, Long Island, N. Y., was a visitor in Murphy Wednesday, and announced that the picture which this company has been filming in Graham County on the Santeetlah River was completed Tuesday. Mr. Miracle was enroute to his home at Barbourville, Ky., for a short visit.

The title of the play is "Stark Love," and is based on the famous old folklore song entitled "Barber Allen." Mr. Miracle was one of the four leading characters, playing the part of the father of the hero. Helen Monday, of Knoxville, Tenn., was leading lady, supported in the opposite role by Forest James of Auburn, Ala. T. F. Brogan, of Barbourville, Ky., was the other leading character.

This company of players have been in the mountains of Graham County on the Santeetlah River near Robbinsville for the past three months during which time more than a thousand scenes were "shot" in the language of the cameraman. These include the old pounding mill, old spinning wheel, hand loom weaving and mountain scenes. The closing scene was of a tremendous flood of a mountain stream, a large dam having been built and blown up for this purpose. The hero and heroine were together in the flood, according to Mr. Miracle.

Preparing for the Big Show

MAYOR HILL ANNOUNCES COMMITTEES

TO PROVIDE PICNIC LUNCH AND BARBECUE

TENTATIVE PROGRAM INCLUDES PROMINENT SPEAKERS OF GEORGIA AND NORTH CARO- LINA.

Elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment of the Appalachian Scenic Highway officials of Georgia and North Carolina and the many other prominent visitors the meeting will bring here on August 21, according to announcement made this week by Mayor Frank S. Hill, who is planning and working unceasingly for the success of the occasion.

Committees have been appointed to canvass the town for funds and basket lunches, and these committees are meeting a ready response by the people of Murphy, he stated.

The people of the county are cordially invited and urged to bring basket dinners, Mayor Hill said, and a hearty welcome is extended to all to come to Murphy on August 21 and participate in one of the most important and far reaching road meetings ever held in the city.

A general holiday will be declared for the occasion, and a barbecue and basket picnic dinner will be served the visitors. Mayor Hill stated there would be around six hundred visiting delegates to the meeting from the towns and cities between Asheville and Murphy and Atlanta and Murphy, and that several thousand were expected from the county and nearby towns. The committee will make all preparations possible to take care of the large crowd expected here on that day, and the people of the county are urgently requested not to forget the full basket of picnic dinner.

The Regal Hotel has been designated as headquarters for the meeting, and Cool Springs selected as the place for serving lunch.

The visitors are expected to arrive in Murphy around 12 o'clock noon on August 21st. They will be met by members of the reception committee and given information and directions desired. It is expected that a large number will spend the night in Murphy and an opportunity will be given to make reservations as they desire. Those desiring will also be given an opportunity to wash and spruce up a bit for the grand feast which will be spread for the opening of the occasion.

They will then be escorted and directed to Cool Springs where tables and benches will be erected. The roadway to Cool Springs is being made wider to allow passing of cars traveling both ways, a parking space cleared and the grounds otherwise put in readiness.

It will be of interest to the visitors to see and quench their thirst from Murphy's famous spring of ice water flowing out of the top of a mountain of massive rock, as clear as crystal, and as unceasing as the Hiwassee river into which it flows a little more than a hundred feet away. This spring was an important factor and greatly relieved the water shortage in Murphy during the terrible drought of last summer, the cool sparkling waters of which did not cease to flow abundantly.

Besides the speaking and picnic lunch, the visitors will be entertained with band music and other features.

The tentative program as announced by officials of the ASH will include the most outstanding leaders and road enthusiasts in the entire country. The program follows:
