

RUBY SNEED DIED ON LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Ruby Sneed, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sneed, of East Murphy, died at the local hospital last Friday night about 9:30 o'clock, after an illness of only a few days.

Ruby had been confined to her bed suffering with appendicitis, and her condition was such that it was decided to form an operation. She was carried to the Murphy Hospital where an operation was performed in an effort to save her life, but so serious had her condition become, that little hope was held for her recovery.

Ruby was a popular girl, a member of the Baptist Church and Sunday school, and loved by her friends and associates. Her Sunday school teacher, Mrs. E. E. Adams, and her class formed an escort as flower girls in the funeral procession.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. T. L. Sasser, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the presence of a throng of sorrowing friends and relatives. Interment was in Sunset cemetery.

She is survived by her father and mother, two brother and two sisters, Clarence and Warren and Lois and Dorothy Sneed, and a host of relatives and friends.

Captain Smathers To Speak At Murphy September 3rd.

With a Campaign itinerary carrying him into every town and city in the entire state, Hon. Johnson J. Hays, Republican Nominee for the United States Senate, is waging one of the most vigorous campaigns ever waged in recent years.

On September 1st, Mr. Hays is scheduled to begin his campaign in the Tenth Congressional District, and accompanied by the Republican nominee for Congress, Captain Kenneth Smathers, he will carry his fight into every county of this district.

Mr. Hays and Captain Smathers will speak in Murphy on Friday, September 3rd, at 11:00 A. M.

Much enthusiasm has been noted in the Republican ranks for the coming campaign and it is expected that the Republicans are going to put up a fight that is not usually expected in the off year. The Republican state chairman, Brownlow Jackson of Hendersonville, N. C., has not only united the party throughout the state but has instilled in the rank and file of the party a desire to carry the banner of victory. It is understood that a stiff fight will be put up to elect a Congressman in the Tenth Congressional District.

GREAT WELCOME GIVEN VISITORS TO ASH MEETING

zaw things in Georgia Saturday he had never seen before and that he could say without hesitation that from a standpoint of scenery and comfort the road he came over was among the most beautiful roads he had ever seen in his world-wide travels. He paid a tribute to the builders of the Appalachian scenic highway; to the mountain people of the Blue Ridge and Appalachian range, who he said were of the purest strain of Anglo-Saxon blood, the strain which had made America great and which would keep it great.

"The Atlanta Journal and the people of Atlanta are deeply interested in this wonderful highway just as are the other people of Georgia," said Major Cohen, "and they are also deeply interested in this wonderful section and the people who live here.

"The Atlanta Journal is committed unequivocally, to this highway. Whatever we can do we shall do as cheerfully and as effectively as we know how." He said the eyes of the world are focused upon the south and that this section is facing a great era of prosperity.

Frank S. Reynolds, assistant to the president of the Dinkler hotel system, in brief but eloquent address expressed the appreciation of both the Georgia and North Carolina visitors for the delightful hospitality of the men and women of Murphy.

Many other addresses were made by prominent speakers who lauded the wonderful achievement of the North Carolina and Georgia Engineers and highway departments in making the scenic beauties of these mountains accessible to the outside world. Among them were: Chairman John N. Holder, of the Georgia state highway board; James G. Stikeleather, of Asheville, state highway commissioner for this highway district; Charles A. Webb, co-publisher of the Asheville Citizen; Don S. Elias president of the Asheville Times; W. D. Hoffman, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce; Congressman Zeb Weaver, of the Ninth North Carolina district; Henry H. Estes, of Gainesville, president of the Georgia division of the Appalachian Scenic Highway association; Ex-Governor Charles Brough, of Arkansas; W. T. Winn, president of the Georgia Automobile association; Frank T. Reynolds, assistant to the president of the Dinkler hotels and director in the Georgia division of the Appalachian Scenic Highway association; and Mayor John H. Cathey, of Asheville.

"A Thing of Beauty Is a Joy Forever"

This is one of the beauty spots of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia. The exposition celebrates the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The view shows the tower of one of the main exhibit buildings rearing its head up from among the gorgeous landscape which artists have built around the giant structures which house exhibits from forty-three nations of the world. The Exposition continues until December 1.

SUPERIOR COURT ENDS TWO WEEKS SESSION HERE

Many Cases Disposed of By Judge Harding; Four Murder Cases Heard

Cherokee County Superior Court ended a two weeks session here Saturday which resulted in the conviction of a number of transgressors of the law, disposal of three murder cases, and a mistrial in a fourth murder case. Judge W. F. Harding presided, and a number of favorable comments have been heard in regard to the business like dispatch with which the Judge handled the court.

Ray Millsaps, who was charged with the murder of Ross Voyles, was exonerated the jury finding him not guilty.

Nora Rose, Emma Gibson and Jake Rose, charged with the murder of Buster Gibson, were found not guilty.

Jiri Waldroup, charged with the murder of one Burgess several years ago, the verdict rendered was guilty of manslaughter, and Waldroup was given six years. The case was appealed and appearance bond for Waldroup was fixed at $5,000.00.

The case of the state against W. G. Garrett, charged with the murder of Gus McCurry last April, a plea of insanity was entered and Garrett was tried on this count, which resulted in a mistrial.

A number of other convictions of minor offenses were secured, but these murder trials held the attention of the court most of the time during the session.

Dorothy Mackaill in an Ermine Wrap, Fox Collar

Every Dining Car Meal is Served at a Loss to the Railroads

Few, if any, railroads in this country fail to suffer a substantial loss in providing dining-car service for their patrons, in order that they may save time in travel and be afforded every comfort. During the year 1925, the L. & N. served 615,238 meals, at an actual loss of $195,103, or an average of 32 cents each meal. Here are the figures: Expenses—wages, provisions, repairs, etc., $907,900; Revenues from meals, cigars, etc. served, $712,797; Net loss, $195,103.

Each meal, therefore, cost our patrons on an average of only $1.16, or practically the same as they would pay in any first-class hotel or restaurant; yet it cost this Company $1.48 to produce and serve it.

These figures do not include interest on the investment in dining cars, which, fully equipped with linen, china, kitchenware, etc., cost about $52,000 each.

"The Old Reliable" has earned a reputation for the consistent superiority of its dining-car service and the fairness of its prices.
