The recent death of Houdini puzzles Conan Boyle because Houdini never drank, never smoked. Some doctors would say that helps explain his death. Able men told B. H. Harrirann ine would have lived a longer life had he drunk light beer, and relaxed.

the army. France claims that no Frenchman can become an American citizen without her permission. This being a most arrogant position. Then for any foreign country to complain of our immigration laws is silly. France nor any of the other countries over there will give up a good citizen this country and then set up a yell about our government turning them down. Just what does Europe think this country is strikes us as a problem. They want to be the judge of who they let come to this country altogether. They want to pass on them both ways and we have no sayso whatsoever. If they have an anarchist they don't want they will let and them barn and then harp about our immigration laws when we turn him down. The branding of the cheeks of a Korean boy by Dr. C. A. Haysmeir, Seventh Day Adventist medical mis-sionary from Minnesota, staitioned at Pingyang, was, in addition to being an act of barbaric cruelty, a most un fortunate thing for the cause of foreign missions in the Far East. The supreme court of Korea has upheld the sentence of imprisonment for three months imposed upon the Amer-ican by the lower court, which would seem to be rather mild punishment for the missionary's crime, but even more severe penalty would not suffice repair the damage which the cause of missions has suffered. Wherever the story is told, missionaries will fe the effects of it, and so long as he lives the branded Korean will be a walking testimonial to the cruelty of one who claimed to be a representa-tive of the meek and lowly Nazarene. -Chattanooga Times.
