PROCRASTINATION—In many instances causes grief
sorrow and remorse.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

Suppose your wife and children were out for a ride and the car skidded off the road into a ditch and turned over. Suppose one of your children was penned under the car and could not be released until help came. Suppose the gasoline tank or pipe line would spring a leak and catch on fire—What would it be worth to your wife if she could grasp the handy little Fyr-Fyter and snuff out the fire in an instant?

Ask yourself this question—Would insurance save your child from a horrible death?

Frail, Nervous Women, Read This!

Columbia, S. C.—"I suffered from backache and pains thru my sides and was so nervous I could not sleep, I got so weak and thin that I was just barely able to drag around. Finally I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and found it to be just the right medicine for my trouble. It restored my nerves, strengthened the organs, and built me up in health and strength all over. I could sleep, gained in weight and never felt better."—Mrs. W. G. Sheppard, 1114 Calhoun St.
