2. The vineyard (v. 1),
This means Israel (See Isa, 5:1-7, Jer 2:21, Ps. 80:8).

The Lord went to particular pains to make this nation separate. He bestowed peculiar favors upon it.

These were the rulers and teachers of Israel, even members of the Sanhedrin. They were the spiritual guides of the people.

5. The well-beloved son sent (vv.

The sen here is the Lord Jesus Christ, God's only and beloved Son. He came into their midst.

6. Their punishment (vv. 942). Jesus now asked them for their own verdict upon such villainous ingratitude. He took the place of a jacke and pronounced judgment upon them on the basis of their own verdict. They not only rejected the kingdom, but the Son who was King; therefore the Kingdom was taken from them and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

H. The Son of Man Coming in Glory (13:13:57).

This is part of the well known Offeet discource. It gives a prophetic view of the course of time from its interance just before the crucifixion to the second advent of Christ. Two great facts are before us in this prophetic unterance, the destruction of Jerusalem and the second conting of Christ. The one was near, having inken place within forty years of the crucifixion of Christ; the other is still future. The order of events as outlined are:

1. Moral condition of the world during Christ's absence (vv. 1-13).

1. Moral condition of the world during Christ's absence (vv. 1-13).

This pictures the present age and the result of preaching the gospel. In this age many shall come saying. "I am Christ and shall deceive many." There shall be wars and rumore of wars. Nation shall be pitted against nation and kingdom against kingdom, with earthquakes in divers places, accompanied with famine and pestilence. The witnesses of Christ shall be persecuted and arraigned before rulers and kings. fore rulers and kings. The Cross and Discipleship

The cross and Discipleship
The cross is the pattern of service and suffering for the disciples of Christ. The great demand of Jesus was and is for people who can suffer.
It is of no use trying to get the cross out of discipleship. They go together and will, until the world has been redeemed.—Charles Brown.

200,000 Buyers Can't Be Wrong

When the Pontiac Six was first introduced less than two and a half years ago, immediate buying enthusi-asm was aroused. The public accepted the statement of General Motors and Oakland that here was a new car offering six-cylinder value never before enjoyed at such low price. 75,000 Pontiac Sixes sold in 1926 established a world's record for a new make of car. Sales for 1927 carried the total of satisfied Pontiac owners beyond the 200,000 mark. And now, even if its un-rivaled value could not be proved by comparison with other cars in its field -even if its superiority could not be demonstrated by scores of advanced features combined in no other low-priced six-even if all its claims to leadership were based on generalities - you could still buy the Pontiac Six with complete confidence
