DIZZY Lost Appetite

Mr. M. F. Fink, of Harrisburg, N. C., says: "It must have been fully twenty-five years ago that I began taking Black-Draught regularly. "I was in town one day, and while talking to a friend I stooped over to pick up something. When I straightened up, I felt dizzy. I spoke to him about this and how I had not felt like eating. "My friend told me to take some Black-Draught. I knew my mother had used it, and so I bought a package. When I got home, I took a good, big dose, and the next night, another. In a few days I felt much better. "A good many times I have had this dizziness and a bad taste in my mouth, or headaches, and then I take Black-Draught and get better. I do not have to take it very often. We buy from five to seven packages a year." Try it!

CARBONATION IS BETTER FOR US THAN WE KNOW

Medical Authorities in Leading Hospitals Use Carbonated Drinks Because of Their Healthful Properties

The millions of people who enjoy carbonated beverages every day are treating themselves even better than they think, according to C. K. Hoover, manager of the Coca-Cola Bottling Company, of Murphy, for scientists and dieticians have proved that pure carbonated drinks are highly beneficial to the human system.

"It is exceedingly interesting to note the widespread use of a pure carbonated drink like Coca-Cola in the leading hospitals," said Mr. Hoover. "For instance, here is an article by Miss Vera Kindrick, chief dietician of the Springfield (Mass.) Hospital, in which she says: "We frequently include bottled carbonated beverages in the dietary of our patients. Johns Hopkins Hospital, of Baltimore, I am informed, has for years been a large user of these drinks. Dieticians of the Collins P. Huntington Hospital, which treats cancer cases, say that they have found that the bottled carbonated beverages can be retained on the stomach longer than any other food."

There are several reasons for the growth of the use of these beverages in the hospital dietary. The main one is that the manufacturer of these drinks is careful to see that only the purest ingredients go into his beverages, and that they are manufactured under sanitary conditions. It has been shown also that such a beverage is not merely

Kirby Attends Singer Meeting at Knoxville

Mr. O. K. Kirby, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, has just returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where the managers of the East Tennessee Division held a meeting to plan for a big business and to talk over the past business.

They met the general agent, Mr. J. H. Reed, there and Mr. E. D. Veal the supervising agent of this division, and we all had a banquet at the Atkins Hotel on Thursday night and we sure did have a nice time.

Mr. Reed and Mr. Veal complimented Mr. Kirby very highly for showing he had for the Murphy shop and the showing for Murphy was ahead of any of the larger shops according to the country that we had to work and the conditions that we had to work under, and also we are looking forward for the biggest year the Singer Sewing Machine factory of its business and our business Company has ever had in the history of this year is far ahead of last year.

We are having such a success with our electric machines they are in such a demand now that it keeps us up to it to keep a supply of them on hand.

Well the business in Murphy is so better than it was last year and it is on a more paying basis than last year and the men at the Murphy shop aim to keep it ahead of any previous year.

Now I know that Mr. Kirby is more than pleased with his men with the showing that they have given him for this year and know that they will bend every effort to bring the Murphy shop above the plan and will say that they will have Mr. Kirby corporation in this matter and wish every man in the organization a fine success.
