WOLF CREEK

It has been some months since I sent in any news from here, although many things have happened. The Hot House road or No. 28 has been graded and all the equipment is expected to leave here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ballew report another boy, but Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simonds say their's is a girl.

The program carried out by the Rural school last Thursday afternoon was proclaimed a success by all who were present, and that was about all the house would accommodate.

The Rev. F. R. Carter is having his grist mill repaired. It has been down for several weeks.

Mr. A. P. Davis is planning him a new home.

There has been a lot of moving from one farm to another here this fall.

SUGGESTIONS FOR MAKING HER CHRISTMAS MERRY

Intriguing boxes wrapped in gay papers and tied with bright ribbons and sprigs of mistletoe or holly—suitable to the recipient, so characteristic of the giver. This is the ideal to strive for if you would make her's a Merry Christmas.

Gloves—the most important of accessories for milady's costume. Therefore a practical gift. Of kid, suede, mocha, chamois, and sapekin

Charming lingerie in a great assortment. Of silk, voile, crepe and batiste. Plainly tailored or elaborately trimmed. In gift sets of vest, step-ins, and brassiere. Separate pieces—including nightgowns, pajamas, chemise, etc.

If in doubt why not give silk hosiery—just to be on the safe side? One pair or a dozen pair—for they are always welcome gifts! These are of the loveliest quality—and come in all shades. In sheer, medium and heavy weights.

To tuck away in all sorts of places—glove, corsage or sleeve—the most frivolous of handkerchiefs—dainty and feminine. Of fine linen, with edges of fine lace. More practical hankies are of linen, with colored or hemstitched borders.

And we will be glad to help you with other suggestions as to making her Christmas Merry.
