

Andrews Locals

Miss Ada Mae Pruett, one of the teachers in the Andrews school, is slowly recovering from an attack of pleurisy. Miss Pruett plans to assume her duties as teacher this coming Monday.

Mr. Deck Birchfield, brother of Ex-Sheriff D. M. Birchfield, died at his home between Andrews and Top-ton on last Monday afternoon. Mr. Birchfield had the flu and then it developed into pneumonia.

Mr. D. H. Tillit was in Murphy on Monday of this week attending court.

Mr. C. M. Trull, of Marble, was a business visitor in Andrews on Wednesday of this week.

Messrs. S. E. Cover and P. B. Ferbee were in Asheville the last of the past week on business.

Mrs. Crocket Medford was taken ill on Monday of this week and has gone to the hospital in Franklin.

Capt. J. M. Boone was in Murphy on Monday of this week where he was a witness against the Southern Railway.

Mr. C. T. Vance was in Andrews on Wednesday of this week on business in connection with the Southern Railway.

BOY SCOUTS ARE BRAVE

Deut. 31:7. "Be strong and of good courage."

"Get used to anything," is the advice given to student nurses. This, after training and experience, they succeed in doing. But a wandering reporter in one of the smaller cities of the Empire State, learned of something which gave a young nurse quite a start for a moment.

Three ambulance drivers and a patient were found immediately outside the second-floor surgical dressing room in a hospital. The ambulance men were really "pushers and pullers," the ambulance was a boy's express wagon; and the patient was a twelve-year old boy. Falling on a sharp stone, the lad had cut his hand. Dirty and bleeding it hung on the side of the express cart. His three playmates decided it was a hospital case, and rushed a few blocks without calling help. In fact, they even managed to take him to the second floor of the institution without being challenged.

The attention of one of the prominent surgeons of the city, who happened to be in the hospital at that time, was directed to the case; and he gave prompt treatment.

Three very grave boys sat in silence on the edge of the express wagon and looked at the "big doctor"

Mrs. Witt Davis was taken very ill during the latter part of the past week and was taken to Asheville to the Mission Hospital. After being there a few days, they operated. The baby is in an incubator and doing fine and Mrs. Davis' condition is all that could be expected under the circumstances.

Mayor D. S. Russell continues sick at his home. He has not been out of his home since the fourth day of December.

Capt. Frank W. Swan was in Franklin, N. C., on Wednesday of this week meeting with and taking lunch with the Franklin Rotary Club. Mr. Swan was sent as a delegate from the Andrews Rotary Club for the purpose of discussing with them the advisability of once each quarter having a union meeting of the Rotary Clubs of Andrews, Franklin, Sylva and Waynesville.

Rev. W. H. Ford and wife and children made a trip to Atlanta on last Thursday returning to Andrews on Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Horn, deputy sheriff of Andrews, was in Murphy on Monday of this week on business in connection with his office.

Messrs. Lee Watkins and Z. L. Whitaker were visitors in Murphy on Wednesday of this week.

and his patient. It was a nasty cut, and required four stitches. The little hand was cleansed.

"Are you a Boy Scout?" asked the doctor before he began to use the needle.

"Yes, doctor," was the polite reply.

"Wonderful," said the doctor in a quiet tone, "how brave Boy Scouts are." And he took the first stitch. The little fellow set his teeth. "But he didn't cry none," whispered one of the ambulance driver in admiration, as he observed from the side of the express car.

"Do you know, I've never known a Boy Scout to make a fuss about a little pain. Just as brave as brave can be, Boy Scouts are," quietly mused the doctor, as he took the second stitch.

The surgeon kept commenting on the perfect courage of the Boy Scouts, and the fact that this boy was showing him that he hadn't been misinformed. And in this tactful manner he completed the work. Meantime three little fellows, with their chins in their hands, watched the work of that sharp needle as it was moved by skilled hands. One of the boys was ready to help in adjusting the sling, after thorough treatment had been given.

"He's pretty weak, you know, doctor," one remarked as the patient was again placed in the little red wagon, preparatory to setting out for home.

"But you was brave, Bill," commented the smallest of the little company.

"A Boy Scout always is" was the terse answer of the wounded lad.—W. J. H.

P-T. A. MET LAST FRIDAY EVENING

The Murphy Parent-Teacher's Association observed Daddy's night, in connection with the regular monthly meeting, Friday evening January 18, in the school auditorium.

A short business session was held. Mrs. J. H. Hampton, President, presiding. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. J. P. Anderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Minutes of December 6 read and approved and roll marked by Secretary.

Prof. B. W. Sipe explained that the pictures to be shown each Friday evening in the school auditorium, are loaned by the State Department; the Association being asked only to pay transportation. A certain per cent of the proceeds realized from the showing of these pictures will be given to the Athletic Association; the balance being used by the Parent-Teacher's Association for some needed equipment or improvement in connection with the school. A small admission of 10c will be charged each individual but families will be admitted for only 25c.

Mrs. S. M. Henshaw was welcomed as a new member of the Association.

A count of parents present gave the attendance prize to Miss Emily Sword's section of the fourth grade. Mothers of other grades will please take notice—Only two grades have had the attendance prize during the school year: Mrs. Margaret Bell's section of the third grade having won the prize for September and October, while Miss Sword's section has retained the prize during November, December and January.

Of the seventy-one members on roll, only eighteen were present to enjoy the first showing of motion pictures. However, several visitors and a goodly number of students were in attendance. Prior to the business session, the "Life of Alexander Hamilton," was shown while the crowd gathered and as a conclusion to the evening's program the following pictures were shown: "Tom Sawyer," in four reels and a one reel news picture.

The next Parent-Teacher's meeting will be held in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon, February 7, at 3:15.

FARM FOR SALE

I have a farm of about 132 acres I would like to sell. Two good houses, one five room house and one three room house and good out buildings and good barn. The land lays reasonably well and is a red mulatto land, suitable to most any kind of crops.

We grow tomatoes and beans for Stokeley Bros., pays us about $60.00 or $70.00 to the acre clear and is located 2 1/2 miles from the Stokeley factory at Tellico Plains and lays on the Pallappy Pike. Anyone being interested can write me and I will explain everything to them or they can come and look it over.
