KIWANIAN PRESIDENT

Dr. W. L. Cutts, president of the Copperhill Kiwanis Club, and pastor of the Copperhill Baptist Church, about thirty Kiwanians came to Murphy last Thursday night for their regular meeting, and a number of Murphy citizens were invited as guests.

cousin of ex-sheriff B. B. Morrow, who also served the county as Sheriff some four years ago.

The Democrats are planning to make a fight in the November election for the sheriff's office. D. M. Birchfield was the last Democrat to hold this office, and during the political upheaval of 1928, in the famous Hoover-Smith campaign, the Republicans won the office.

It is understood that Mr. Birchfield is being put forward by his friends again for this office. Many are urging him to make the race, but he has not yet definitely made his decision. Mr. Birchfield has served the county as sheriff, and is at present county game and fish warden. He has been active in behalf of the Democratic party for several years, and has served it creditably and with distinction.

J. H. McCALL IS TAKEN BY DEATH

J. H. McCall, 51 years old, prominent Murphy attorney, died at his home Sunday morning at 7 o'clock, after a lingering illness. He had been in declining health for about three years.

Mr. McCall was one of the oldest members of the Murphy bar, a Mason and member of the Methodist church. He was born in McDowell county, the son of William McCall, of Marion, who died a year ago last May. He was a member of a family of eight boys and one girl, all of whom are prominently identified in the business and civic life of the State.

Mr. McCall was a leader in the civic, political and religious life of his chosen community. He was formerly a Steward of the Methodist church and was one of its most staunch supporters. For a number of years he served in the capacity of county attorney, was county solicitor, and served as representative from Cherokee in the North Carolina General Assembly.

He was also a Mason and was buried with full Masonic honors. Mr. McCall received his education in the public schools of McDowell county. He graduated from the Young Harris college and received his law training at the University of North Carolina. Soon after being admitted to the bar, he moved to Murphy and entered the practice of law.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Methodist church by Rev. Rufus Perkins, assisted by Rev. J. L. Steele, of the Baptist church, and Dr. J. P. Anderson, of the Presbyterian church.

Funeral arrangements were in the hands of his brothers, R. E. McCall and C. R. McCall, funeral directors, of Marion. His six brothers were active pall bearers, while honorary pallbearers were made up of members of the Murphy bar and the local Masonic lodge.

The large number of sorrowing friends who gathered to pay their last respects, and the unusually large profusion of beautiful flowers, attested to the high esteem in which Mr. McCall was held by the community.

Mr. McCall is survived by his widow and one son, W. H. McCall, who recently graduated from the University of North Carolina and arrived home Sunday evening; six brothers, Dr. A. C. McCall, of Asheville; W. C. McCall, C. A. McCall and C. R. McCall, all of Marion, and one sister, Mrs. E. H. Morris, of Evanston, Ill.

BAILEY WINS SENATE RACE BY BIG LEAD

RALEIGH ATTORNEY ASSURED SUPPORT OF SIMMONS IN FALL ELECTIONS

Joseph William Bailey, Raleigh attorney, was given the Democratic nomination in Saturday's primary election by a majority of more than 70,000 over his opponent, Senator Frazier M. Simmons, and late returns trickling in indicate that his lead will go still higher.

Bailey's vote in 1792 precincts was 70,000, while Simmons' was 197,078 to 128,081 for Simmons. That of Thomas L. Estes, Allegheny county man who ran as a wet was 1,643.

In a telegram from Washington Tuesday to John D. Langston, of Goldsboro, Senator Simmons said:

"I have no further statement to make, for I assume the people of the state know that I shall keep the judge I made when I entered the primary, and support Mr. Bailey. Senator Simmons was in his seat in the Senate Tuesday. He entered quietly, and no one said anything to him about his disastrous defeat. No one seemed disposed to crow over him.

Pritchard Winner for Republicans

Winner over three other candidates in his party's primary, Congressman George M. Pritchard, of Asheville, will make the race against Josiah W. Bailey, the Democratic senatorial nominee, for the Republican party of North Carolina next fall.

Additional returns today from Saturday's primary remove any doubt that Pritchard might be forced into a second primary to gain the nomination.

With 1,457 of the State's 4,799 precincts reported, his total vote stood at 19,958, with that of George E. Butler, of Clinton, his nearest rival, at 6,294. The remaining vote was divided 4,152 for Irvin Tucker, of Whiteville, and 1,187 for the Rev. H. Grady Dorsett, Wake Forest Baptist minister.

COPY FOR PAPER MUST BE IN OFFICE BY 9 A. M. WED.

Several articles were omitted this week on account of the late hour in which they were received. All copy must be in the office not later than 9 A. M. Wednesday in order to insure its appearance in the current issue. All copy received after that hour will necessarily have to be carried over until the next week. This means all news and advertising.

When we take copy for publication later than 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, it delays the paper, works a hardship on those who are responsible for its appearance, and when the paper is delayed, it is not fair to our advertisers.

Please bear this in mind and be governed accordingly. C. W. Bailey, Editor. Johnny Bacchus, Production Mgr. W. T. Russell, Printer. Hattie Palmer, Reporter.
