Democrats Win 3 County Jobs

TICKETS ARE SPLIT IN CLOSE RACE TUESDAY

Dillard, Padgett and Shields Conceded Democratic Winners; Bristol, Keener, Lovinggood and Townson Win for Republicans

The Democrats came out of the battle of ballots Tuesday with three county offices and running close races in all the other contests, according to figures compiled in the face of incomplete returns Wednesday Morning.

The Republicans, who dominate the local county politics by about 700 majority, conceded the election of the following Democrat:

John H. Dillard, for Representative, by about 400 majority.
R. L. Padgett, for Register of Deeds by a majority of from sixty to a hundred.

Lee Shields, for County Commissioner, by a safe majority.

The Republicans claim and likewise are conceded by the Democrats that the following are the Republicans elected, with possibly the exception of county Commissioner. The Democrats still claim and believe with the final count another commissioner will be from their party ranks:

John Keener, for Clerk of the Superior Court, by about 180 majority.
Frank Bristol, for Sheriff, by a majority of between 70 and 100.
For County Commissioners, E. L. Townson and J. M. Lovinggood are claimed by the Republicans by safe majorities.

On the face of incomplete returns from seven precincts out of twenty-six, including Andrews North Ward, Marble, Brasstown, Walker School House, Liberty, Long Ridge, and Upper Beaverdam, and one precinct, Shoal Creek, from which no returns had been received up until noon Wednesday.

MUSIC CLUB HOLDS MEETING NOVEMBER 3

The Music Club held a most interesting meeting in the club room on November 3rd. The president, Mrs. C. W. Savage, had prepared a very instructive program on North Carolina composers and their compositions. The following program was given:

North Carolina Composers, Mrs. Savage.
History of the Saturday Music Club of Asheville, Mrs. Anderson.

"Oh Dear Brenau! Oh Fair Brenau," piano solo by Mrs. Davidson.

This number was composed by Miss Stringfield, of Waynesville.
The life and works of Helen Pugh and Lamar Stringfield were discussed by Mrs. Keener and Miss Anderson.

False, piano solo, by Miss Lively, composed by Miss Stringfield.

Mrs. Tom Axley played two of her own compositions and the program closed with the rendition of Adoration by Borovskiy by Miss Mildred Akin, and a vocal solo "Why Should the Spirit of Mortal Be Proud?" sang by Mrs. Savage, composed by Miss Stringfield.

"CAROLINA MADE" GOODS SUBJECT OF CLUB STUDY

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on November 19th, at the usual hour, in the club room of the Carnegie Library.

In connection with the study of the club program for the year, "Made in Carolina," the subject for this particular afternoon will be "Wearing Apparel."

Mrs. Ralph Moody will discuss the "Finished Garment," while Mrs. W. M. Fain will present "Hosiery." The music for this meeting will be rendered by Mrs. T. J. Mauney.

As a part of the advertising during the week that this program is to be presented, Candler's Department Store will have a window display of "Carolina Made" goods, showing the variety of wearing apparel which is manufactured in our own State. This window display will be placed in on Saturday before the meeting and remain until after Wednesday, then Candler's will also advertise "Carolina Made" goods in the local paper during that week, and much interest is expected to be drawn both to the program and the window display during this week.

Well, we know that half of the candidates were elected, anyway.

AGED CULBERSON WOMAN PASSES NOVEMBER 2ND

Services for Mrs. J. S. Shields Held At Mt. Pleasant Church Monday

On November the second the mute hand of the death angel came into our home and took from us our mother, Rachael Matilda Heifner Shields. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heifner, a pioneer family of this country, who came here from Transylvania county about 1850. She was born on April 11, 1858, a few miles west of Culberson, and within a short distance of where she spent the larger part of her life.

She became the wife of John Silas Shields on Nov. 16, 1876, and this union were born eleven children, two daughters of which died in their infancy; six sons, I. A. Shields, L. M. Shields, L. W. and J. S. Shields, Jr., of Culberson, E. L. Shields of Oaks, Pennsylvania, and J. B. Shields, of Marble, N. C. Three daughters, Mrs. W. B. Hall of Cairo, Okla., Mrs. M. R. Gladson of Culberson, N. C., and Mrs. R. W. Brown of Copperhill, Tenn. She is also survived by 38 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

In early womanhood she became a member of Hopewell Baptist church where her membership remained until the organization of Mt. Pleasant Church of which she was a charter member. She was a faithful member, rarely ever leaving her seat vacant on church days, even to the last resting before her death.

She was, at the time of her death, 72 years, 6 months, and 21 days old. She was laid to rest at Mt. Pleasant cemetery, on Nov. 3rd. Rev. Robert Bell, her pastor, conducting the funeral services, assisted by Rev. E. D. Cole, Rev. Thomas Truett, and Rev. F. C. West. C. B. Hill, funeral director, of Murphy in charge.

She was a devoted wife always giving her best to her husband and children. The day was never too long, the road too rough, or the night too dark, for her to administer her sympathetic service to her friends.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, children, one sister, two brothers, and a host of other relatives and friends.

The grandchildren acted as pallbearers.

The over-filled church, beautiful floral offering, and the many tears.
