THE STORY OF THE SPIDER

While Mark Twain was editor of a Missouri paper, a subscriber wrote to him saying he had found a spider in his paper and asking Mark, whether this was a sign of good or bad luck. The following was a reply of the well-known humorist:

"Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good or bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

Clubs Hold Joint Party At The Folk School

Saturday night, the 31st, the Men's and Women's clubs of Brasstown met for a Hollow'en party at the John C. Campbell Folk School.

There were numerous stunts, including bobbing for apples, trying to bite apples hanging on strings, marshmallow races, a cat puzzle, and a hunt for the missing tails.

Refreshments were served, cookies brought by the women members, and coffee provided by the school.

Several singing games were played, including the general favorites, "Skip to My Lou," and "Pop, Goes the Weasel." Then there was the Danish Grand March.

The next joint meeting of the clubs is to come Saturday night, November 14th, when Miss Fanny Dunn, of Teachers' College, New York City, is to be the speaker. Miss Dunn is recognized as an authority on rural education.

ARE YOU GUILTY or NOT GUILTY?

If your neighbor should, without warning, desert his family, leaving his wife and little children without any means of support, what would you think of him? Would you not think him guilty of a serious offense? Now, if tonight you should depart on that long journey from whither no man hath ever returned, have you made provisions to leave any means of support for your family or dependents? If you have not when there is an easy way provided whereby you can easily do so, would you not, in a measure, be just as guilty?

In order that you may be able to say "Not Guilty," with a clear conscience, provide for their support with a perfect protection Life Insurance Policy written by
