News Review of Current Events the World Over

Congress Approving the President's Rehabilitation Program Step by Step-Oliver Wendell Holmes Resigns From the Supreme Court.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

ONLY eight senators out of $1 voting opposed the passage in the te of the administration's bill creating a reconstruction finance corporation that will extend $2,000,000,000 credit to banks, insurance companies, railroads, mortgage loan companies, farm credit and other associations. A similar measure was rushed rapidly through the house, and before the close of the week President Hoover had the satis-Senator E. D. faction of signing the act embodying his most ambitious plan for the financial rehabilitation of the Debate of the measure in the sen ate was chiefly over proposed amend-ments, many of which were offered and few were chosen. The most imand few were chosen. The most important amendment adopted was proposed by Senator Ellison D. Smith of South Carolina. It added a new section to the bill authorizing an appropriation of $50,000,000 for use by the secretary of agriculture to extend secretary of agriculture to extend loans to small farmers. It stipulated further that the $45,000,000 now re-maining in the drought relief fund maining in the drought relief fund should be applied to such toans.

During the discussion there were frequent and fierce attacks on the banking interests, especially those of the "international" variety which are being accused of questionable methods and ethics in the floation of foreign securities, it is the floation of foreign securities, it is floation of foreign securities. eign securities in the United States.

The eight men who refused to vote for the bill were all from the western states. They were Norrts of Nebraska, Brookhart of Iowa, and Blaine of Ra Brooknart of lowa, and Diante of Wisconsin, all "progressive" Republicans, and Bratten of New Mexico. Bulow of South Dakota, Connaily of Texas, McGill of Kansas, and Thomas of Oklahoma, all Democrats.

PROCEEDING with the economic program, the senate put through the bill increasing the resources of the federal land banks by $125,000,000. Meanwhile subcommittees began hear ings on the $150,000,000 home toan discount bill and the $750,000,000 de-positors' relief bill.

The senate finance committee con-tinued the taking of testimony relatto the deals of our international bankers in foreign securities, and it was often most interesting. For in-stance, it was brought out that Secetary of State Stimson and Francis assistant secretary, took active part in ironing out an alleged misunderstanding between the Colombian government and a syndicate head ed by the National City company, which early in 1931 temporarily with held a payment of $4,000,000 on a $20,000,000 credit arrangement. Also, Oliver C. Townsend, formerly com-mercial attache in Peru, said he was severely reprimanded for making a pessimistic reports on the financial status of Peru when that country was trying to float a large loan in the

NEARLY ninety-one years old and N growing feeble physically, Oliver Wendell Holmes voluntarily brought to an end his service of thirty years as as associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. The venerable and beloved tion to President Hoover, who reluctantly accepted it, writing: can retiring from public service with such a sense of affection and devotion of the whole people." Only whole people." Only the day before Mr. Justice O. W. Justice Holmes had Holmes rendered a decision with character istic pithy phrasing, but his voice way ered and he had to be helped from the bench and into his automobile. So he penned his letter of resignation, clos The time has come, and I bow to the inevitable.

There were many suggestion for a successor to Justice Holmes, among them being: Newton D. Baker, Wil-son's secretary of war; Curtis D. Wilbur, Coolidge secretary of the navy; William Dewitt Mitchell, Hoover's at-torney general; John W. Davis, 1924 Democratic Presidential candidate; William S. Kenyon, Judge Eighth dis trict United States Circuit court; Rob ert Von Moschzisker, former chief justice of the Supreme court of Pennsylvania; Benjamin Nathan Cardozo. vania; Benjamin Nathan Cardon, chief judge, Court of Appeals, New York, and Learned Hand, judge Sec Vork, and Learned States Circuit ond district, United States Circuit court. Middle westerners put forward also the name of James H. Wilkerson of Chicago, who about the same time was elevated by the President from the district court to the federal Circuit Court of Appeals.

WHEN Gen. Charles G. Dawes in-VV formed the press that he would re-tire from the ambassadorship to Great Britain after the disarmament conference, gets under way, he created a great flurry among the minor politi-cians, some of whom assumed that he was putting himself in line for the Republican Presidential nomination if the opponents of Mr. Hoover could prevail. But the general put an end to such speculation in just such a prevail. statement as might be expected from him. In it be said: "I cherish for President Hoover the highest admira-tion and deepest affection. Any intimation to the effect that in any possible way or under any possible tingency he will not have my loval and entire support is an insult to me.

SPEAKING of resignations, it may be recorded right here that James A. Farrell resigned the presidency of the United States Steel corporation, effective April 18. He has held the position since 1911 and would be retired automatically in February, 1933, but says he helieves "the time has now but says he believes "the time has now arrived for my successor to be ap-pointed in order to establish the management upon a more permanent foun dation composed of younger men." Mr. Farrell will remain on the board of directors.

RETIREMENT of Dwight F. Davis from the position of governor general of the Philippine Islands had been long expected. Mrs. Davis is in the the tropics. President Hoover promptly sent to the senate the name of Theodore Roosevelt.

Col. Theodore

forty-four years old and has made an ex-Roosevelt cellent record as governor of Porto Rico, where he has been since 1929. flico, where he has been since 1923. He was assistant secretary of the navy from 1921 to 1924, in the latter year being the Republican candidate for governor of New York, but was defeated. His war service included participation in practically all the offensive operations of the A. E. F.

Roosevelt's successor in Porto Rico is likely to be James R. Beverly, attorney general and second ranking officer in the island government.

RETURNING to the doings of con-RETURNING to the doings of congress: The house ways and means committee began its hearings preliminary to drafting a bill for increase of taxes. Secretary Mellon of the treasury and Undersecretary Mills were called to explain their department program, which is designed to raise a billion dollars in revenue by boosting income rates all along the line and by levying taxes on many things the orlevying taxes on many things the or-dinary citizen enjoys—automobiles. tobacco, amusements, radio-as well ich conveniences as bank checks as such conveniences as bank checks, and telephone and telegraph messages. The judiciary committee of the house had before it the resolution of Representative Wright Patman of xas for impeachment of Secretary Mellon. The Texan set forth his charges of "high crimes and misde-meanors" based on Mr. Mellon's al-leged connection with business in viotation of law. The secretary was represented by Alexander W. Gregg, former solicitor of the internal revenue

MIS. HATTIE W. CARAWAY of Arkansas, widow of Senator T. H. Caraway, is now a senator in her own right, having been elected to that high post by the people of her state. She is the first woman ever elected to the senate. Her victory at the polls was a foregone conclusion as soon as the Democrats nominated her. There were two "independent" candidates but they didn't get many votes. Mrs. Caraway made no campaign. She re-mained in Washington, serving in the senate under a temporary appointment from Gov. Harvey Parnell.

THOSE Democrats who oppose the nomination of Franklin D. Rooserelt for the Presidency feit they had gained a point when the national com-mittee sold the national convention to Chicago. "Sold" is the right word, for Chicago. "Sold" is the right word, the prize was frankly awarded to the city that would guarantee the most money for the convention's expenses. right. The opening date is June 27.

POLITICAL scheming resulted in the upset of the French cabinet and conditions in Paris were described as chaotic. Premier Laval handed to President Doumer the resignations of all the ministers except himself, tried hard to get the support of the tried hard to get the support of the radicals, offering the post of foreign minister to Edouard Herriot. That gentleman declined, stating that his party could not participate in the government until after the spring elections, and so Laval was left no course but resignation. Laval then formed another cabinet from which Briand was omitted. It was assumed Briand was omitted. It was assumed that there would be no change in France's foreign policy at the rep-arations and disarmament confer-

SECRETARY OF STATE STIMSON is at peace with Japan again and the incident of the assault on Consul C. B. Chamberlain by Japanese sol-diers in Mukden is considered closed with the punishment those who acti those who actually participated in the attack. Tokyo offered also to discipline Mafor General Ninamiya. commander of the mil-itary police, and his subordinate officers, held responsible for the actions of the military police. Punishment of a major general in such cases is rare, and the secretary accepted the other punishments as sufficient and asked remission of the punishment of the general and his subordinates.

C. B. Chamber-

The neutral commission of investi-gation fathered by the League of Nations will leave Europe at the end of January for Manchuria, where it will be Joined by Gen. Frank R. McCoy, the American member.

A TTORNEY General William D. Mitchell began a searching investigation into the enforcement of crim inal laws in Hawaii, with especial refreence to the recent killing of a native Hawaiian who had been accused of attacking the wife of a naval officer.
Crime conditions in Honolulu are wretched, according to a report of the house naval committee, and some congressmen think it may be necessary to change the organic law of the terri-tory to make the islands safe for white

Meanwhile the naval officer con-cerned, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie; his mother-in-law, Mrs. Granville For-tescue, and two enlisted men are under charges of having murdered Joseph Kahahawal, one of the men alleged to have attacked Mrs. Massie. The lieutenant indicated that he would be satisfied with a trial in the local court, and though there was opposition to this in navy circles in Washington, Secretary Adams decided that all the defendants should be turned over to territorial authorities.

Gov. Lawrence Judd called a special ession of the territorial legislature to consider Honolulu's crime situation.

L EADERS of the dry forces of the United States, aroused but by no means dismayed by the activities of the wets, held a big five-day conference in Washington

ence in Washington to inaugurate what they declare will be a year of "the most intense activity since the adoption of the Eighteenth amendment." These big guns of the Anti-Saloon league and a large number of their adherents made and listened to red hot speeches and laid plans for the 1932 national 1932 national campaign. They formulated unified action on the proposed resubmission of the dry amendment to the states, which the league opposes, and arranged for public meetings everywhere and the wide circulation of literature. of literature.

Most prominent among the speakers and planners in the convention were F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the league; Bishop W. N. Ainsworth of Birmingham, Ala.; Gov. William H. Murray of Oklahoma, Sen-ator Morris Sheppard of Texas, Pat-rick Callahan of Louisville and Ernest Cherrington, general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism.
(@ 1932 Western Newspaper Union.)

O. W. HOLMES RESIGNS FROM SUPREME COURT

Failing Health Forces the Aged Jurist to Quit.

Washington.—Oliver Wendell Holmes has resigned as justice of the United States Supreme court, and President Hoover accepted his resignation.

The justice, in a letter to the Pres-ident, said the condition of his health made the move necessary.

He told the President "the time has when I must bow to the in-Announcing receipt of the resigna-tion, the President said "I must, of course, accept it." The veteran justice will be ninetyone on March 8.

The strength of Mr. Holmes has been markedly lessening in late months. His step became somewhat enfeebled at times and he has become stooped. He frequently required the help of court pages or of his fellow justices to take his seat and rise after the session was over, at recent meeting of the court.

Holmes' letter, submitting his resignation to the President, said:

"In accordance with the provision of the judicial code as amended section 200, title 28 United States code 375, I tender my resignation as justice of the Supreme court of the United States of America.

"The condition of my health makes it a duty to break off connections that cannot leave without deep after the affectionate relations of many years and the absorbing interests that have filled my life.

"I have nothing but kindness to remember from you and from my brethren."

In a letter addressed to the aged Justice, the President said:

"I am in receipt of your letter of January 12 tendering your resignation from the Supreme Court of the United States. I must, of course, accept it.

"No appreciation I could express would even feebly represent the gratitude of the American people for your whole life of wonderful public service, from the time you were an officer in the Civil war to this day-near your ninety-first anniversary.

"I know of no American retiring from public service with such a sense of affection and devotion of the whole

Justice Holmes was named to the bench by President Roosevelt on De-cember 4, 1902.

The son of Oliver Wendell Holmes, noted New England wit and author, he had already made a name for him-self as a justice on the Massachusetts Supreme court and his liberal trend was pronounced then

Company of Japanese Is Wiped Out by Chinese

Tokyo.-Four Japanese officers and more than thirty noncommissioned officers and men are reported to have been killed and almost all of the rest of their company wounded by Chinese bandits at Hsinlitun, on the Tahushan-Tunglino railway.

The battle started when the Japanese, on the way to repair the line following the derailing of a Japanese armored car, were attacked by 5,000 Chinese. The Japanese company was practically wiped out after several hours of fierce fighting.

Four on Trial Feb. 1 for Donnelly Kidnaping

Cansas City, Mo.—The trial of four persons indicted in the kidnaping of Mrs. Nell Donnelly, millionaire garment manufacturer, was set for February 1 by Judge Brown Harris.

The four are Mrs. Ethel Depew, whose husband, Marshall Depew, it is sought as one of the chief kidnapers; Lacy Browning, Holliday (Kan.) farmer, accused of arranging the hideout for the kidnapers; Paul Scheidt. Bonner Springs, Kan., at whose house Mrs. Donnelly was held, and Charles Mele,

Shoemaker Confesses the Murder of Little Girl

Cincinnati. Cincinnati, — The kidnaping and slaying of six-year-old Marian Me-Lean was confessed, County Prosecu-tor Robert N. Gorman announced, by Charles Bischoff, forty-five, a shoe maker. Marian's body was found De cember 22 in the basement of a tenement occupied by Bischoff, who was the first to report the discovery. She had been lured away from her home December 17

Wife Slayer Kills Self

ontiac, Mich.-Sought for 36 hours as the slayer of his wife and her com panion, James Schacklady killed him self as officers approached his hiding place in the attic of the house where he shot Mrs. Anna Schacklady, forty two, and James P. Breen, fifty-two, to

On Your Radio FRIENDSHIP TOWN"

FRIDAY, 8:00 P. M., C.S.T.

PREPARATIONS

Second Educational Series of Radio Lectures Started

Authorities on economics, psychology and other subjects have inaugurated the second series of "Listen and Learn" Lectures under the auspices of the National Advisory Council on Radio in Education, over coastto-coast networks

Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, started the spring series in January when he and representatives of the Coun-cil outlined the lecture courses to follow. The programs are heard every Saturday over NBC-WEAF every Si

The series is scheduled for twenty weeks, closing with a valedictory program the last week in May. Among the Speakers. International trade, the tariff and industrial planning are economic sub-jects to be touched upon by speakers such as James Harvey Rogers of Yale, Ernest M. Patterson of Penn-sylvania, F. W. Taussig of Harvard, George Henry Soule, Jr., editor of The New Republic, and Walton H. Hamilton of Yale.

Changes and growth in personali-ties, animal behavior and phychology in education are topics to be taken up by Fred A. Moss of George Washington University, Henry W. Nissen of Yale, Frank N. Freeman of Chieago, and others.

Public response to the initial ten lectures broadcast in the fail indicated, according to the Council, that they reached listening groups in the home, school, special neighborhood gatherings and even fishermen of Nova Scotia.

PATRIOTIC SONGS

The songs that thrill Americans, patriotic selections written by in-spired composers, will be played in the February National 4-H club pro-gram of the National Farm and Home Hour by the United States Marine Band.

The concert will be another program in the series by the Marine Band on "Learning to Know Amer-Ica's Music."

Ica's Music."

Beginning with "The Star-Spangled Banner," the renditions will swing through "America," and the lively strains of "Dixie." These will be followed with "Yankee Doodle," "America the Beautiful," "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," "Hail Columbia," and a more recent song written when the United States Army was moving to the European battle front, "Over There."

The programs are designed to acquaint and familiarize the 850,000 quaint and familiarize the 850,000 4-H club members of the United States with the music which is typ-

Each month an additional concert will be provided by the Marine Band. On March 5 America's hymns and religious songs will be featured. The programs are broadcast over a coast-

Harvey Hays, well known to radio steners for his interpretations of listeners for his interpretations outdoor roles, will play the part of the forest ranger. Wise in the ways of forest uses and protection through long experience in the fields, the character will often find himself in amusing situations with his sub assistant whose eagerness sometimes overwhelms his better judgment.

A lion's roar in the studios of the A flon's roar in the stitutes of the National Broadcasting Company is produced, not by a flon's vocal cords. but with a bass viol bow drawn across a length of hemp covered

Alfred Corn, who plays the part of Sammy in The Coldbergs' NBC daily feature, is nearing his sixteenth birthday, and is a student in high standing at the Art Students' League.