To The Star:

Listen, friends, at what I have to say and get these few words straight.

The worst thing that every happened to us was in 1928.

We all voted for Hoover and couldn't be convinced.

But this depression on now has taught to some eares.

But this depression on now has taught us some sense.

He promised us prospertiy and said poor houses would vanish away.

His promises are not worth a whoop and starvation is here today.

We need a man like Wilson, but Roosevelt will do this fall.

But we are all positive that we do not need Hoover at all.

We know he's running again but this depression we all have felt.

And when you go to the election be sure that you vote for Roosevelt.

Hoover has had his fishing and he has had his thrill.

But he almost finished all of us with his tariff bills.

A new president we'll all like to

A new president we'll all like to

WOMAN IS GIVEN LONG SENTENCE

Maude Nelson Enters Plea of Mur-der In Second Degree

Maude Nelson, 21 charged with the murder of Mrs. Martha McClure, 35 near Andrews last April 2, Thursday was sentenced to serve from 15 to 20 years in State's Prison, Raleigh, after defense attorneys had entered a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree.

After the State and defense had rested, Judge H. Hoyle Sink, presiding over Cherokee county Superior Court here, suggested that a plea of second degree murder be entered, although the evidence, he said, was ample to sustain first degree murder. The court stated that it would not
